Coming Home Ministry That Matters With Veterans And Military Families:

Coming Home Zachary Moon, 2015-05-19 Coming home from military service is a process of reconnection and reintegration that is best engaged within a compassionate community. There are almost 20 million veterans and service members living in the United States including more than one million Americans deployed to Iraq or Afghanistan since 2001. Post war life can be challenging unless there are communities responding with compassion and hospitality. How churches welcome and respond will be critical to the well being of our nation's veterans, their families, our local communities, and our nation. Zachary Moon, a commissioned military chaplain, has seen the unique challenges for those adjusting to post war life. In this book, he prepares congregations to mobilize a receptive and restorative ministry with military service members and their families. Designed to be accessible to both clergy and laypersons, this is an ideal resource for individuals or small groups interested in addressing the opportunities and challenges facing veterans and their families. Discussion questions and other resources included will help support small group dialogue and community building. Moral Injury among Returning Veterans Joshua Morris, 2021-08-23 Josh Morris privileges the voices of veterans to argue that returning soldiers need families, friends, and religious communities to listen to their stories with compassion to avoid amplifying the effects of moral injury. When society greets returning soldiers in ways that reinforce cultural norms that frame military service as heroic rather than acknowledging its ambiguities and harmful effects, it exacerbates moral injury and keeps veterans from resolving inner conflicts and coping effectively with civilian life. Morris, a military chaplain and veteran who served in Afghanistan, knows these difficulties first hand. Using stories from other veterans, Morris helps us see how cultural assumptions about military service can complicate moral injury and a veteran's return home. Drawing from liberation theologies, ideology critique, and Antonio Gramsci's advocacy for the working class, the book suggests useful perspectives and spiritual care resources for military chaplains, religious leaders, caregivers, and concerned civilians. Morris argues that military chaplains are uniquely positioned to help returning soldiers resist the amplification of existing moral injury. Moving from "thank you for your service" to liberative solidarity can galvanize resistance and make change possible. Fellowship of Prayer Sarah Griffith Lund, 2016-01-05 The seasonal cycles of winter, spring, summer, and fall are echoed in the birth, life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. The season of Lent, culminating in Holy week, invites those who follow Jesus into a time of deeper reflection on our own seasons of life in the present age. Where is God to be known, encountered, and embodied in these turbulent times? How is God revealed in our dreams and visions? Sarah Griffith Lund, author of the acclaimed Blessed Are the Crazy, Breaking the Silence about Mental Illness, Family and Church, takes you through the 40 days of Lent with these stories of the possibilities of our lives leading to the ultimate redemption and resurrection. Military Moral Injury and Spiritual Care Nancy J. Ramsay, Carrie Doehring, 2019-12-03 Military Moral Injury and Spiritual Care offers resources to inform and support practices of spiritual care for veterans and others affected by moral injury incurred in the context of military service.

Moral Injury Brad E. Kelle, 2020-08-25 Moral injury has developed in earnest since 2009 within psychology and military studies especially through work with veterans of the U S military's wars in Afghanistan and Iraq A major part of this work is the attempt to identify means of healing recovery and repair for those morally injured by their experiences in combat or similar situations What this volume does is to provide insight into the identification of moral injury the development of the notion attempts to work with those affected emerging ideas about moral injury portraits of moral injury in the past and present and especially what creative engagement with moral injury might look like from a variety of perspectives As such it will be an important resource for Christian ministers chaplains health care workers and other providers and caregivers who serve afflicted communities

Spiritual Care in our Multifaith World Daniel S. Schipani, 2024-07-16 Across the helping professions and as a compassionate response to human suffering spiritual care is a special process of companioning Furthermore all forms of spiritual care always consist in connecting diverse wisdom traditions with care receivers spiritual resources longings and struggles in socio cultural and contextually pertinent ways This book thoroughly explicates such understanding with interdisciplinary lenses Its main purpose is to offer a comprehensive response to the new challenges and opportunities for excellent care presented by increasing cultural and religious spiritual pluralization Practical guidelines and case studies are connected with models of spirituality spiritual toxicity and injury communication strategies for engaging difference patterns of caregiving work and profiles of professional competence In addition to offering an overarching orientation to the field the contents of this book invite further reflection dialogue and collaboration among clinical pastoral education and psychospiritual therapy students and supervisors chaplains pastors and other religious caregivers counselors psychotherapists and others interested in spiritual care in our multifaith world It thus reflects the shared hope and indeed the expectation that spiritual care theory and practice across traditions and disciplines will continue to be enhanced in the days ahead

Warriors between Worlds Zachary Moon, 2019-02-12 The concept of moral injury emerged in the past decade as a way to understand how traumatic levels of moral emotions generate moral anguish experienced by some military service members Interdisciplinary research on moral injury has included clinical psychologists Litz et al 2009 Drescher et al 2011 theologians Brock Graham 2017 ethicists Kinghorn 2012 and philosophers Sherman 2015 This project articulates a new key concept moral orienting systems a dynamic matrix of meaningful values beliefs behaviors and relationships learned and changed over time and through formative experiences and relationships such as family of origin religious and other significant communities mentors and teachers Military recruit training reengineers pre existing moral orienting systems and indoctrinates a military moral orienting system designed to support functioning within the military context and the demands of the high stress environment of combat including immediate responses to perceived threat This military moral orienting system includes new values and beliefs new behaviors and new meaningful relationships Recognizing the profound impact of military recruit training this project challenges dominant notions of post deployment reentry and reintegration and formulates a new paradigm for first understanding the generative circumstances of ongoing moral stress that include moral emotions like guilt shame disgust and contempt and second for responding to such human suffering through compassionate care and comprehensive restorative support This project calls for more effective participation of religious communities in the reentry and reintegration process and for a military wide post deployment reentry program comparable to the encompassing physio psycho spiritual social transformative intensity experienced in recruit training boot camp

Valor and Vulnerability Robert C. Dykstra, Ryan LaMothe, 2025-04-10 Intimacy vulnerability precarity resiliency and loss are ingredients of any life though they take on particular shape and tone when we listen to the experiences of boys and men The voices and stories of men and boys are invitations for pastoral ministers and theologians to understand and respond to their joys struggles and sorrows as well as to recognize and affirm their courage and strengths In this book thirteen scholars in pastoral theology from diverse backgrounds and perspectives collaborate in engaging art literature the social sciences and cultural artifacts to explore the intersection of masculinity and religious life in rich and varied forms Their aim in part is not only to deepen and appreciate wide ranging experiences of boys and men but also to attend and respond to systemic realities that contribute to or undermine their flourishing

Doing Theology in Pandemics Zachary Moon, 2022-04-01 The COVID 19 era will be remembered not only for the tragic global public health crisis but also for the continued police violence against persons of color the courageous activism that continues to rise up to confront racialized violence in all its forms and the perpetuation of white nationalist rhetoric from the highest government elected offices Everywhere we look we find trauma and pain and we find resilience and resolve This volume featuring leading theological scholars and religious leaders is rich in analysis of the plagues we are facing and equally rich in the resources practices and inspirations that will carry our efforts to build a more just world
