Coming Into Contact Explorations In Ecocritical Theory And Practice:

Coming Into Contact Annie Merrill Ingram, 2010-01-25 A snapshot of ecocriticism in action Coming into Contact collects sixteen previously unpublished essays that explore some of the most promising new directions in the study of literature and the environment They look to previously unexamined or underexamined aspects of literature's relationship to the environment including swamps internment camps Asian American environments the urbanized Northeast and lynching sites The authors relate environmental discourse to practice including the teaching of green design in composition classes the restoration of damaged landscapes the persuasive strategies of environmental activists the practice of urban architecture and the impact of human technologies on nature The essays also put ecocriticism into greater contact with the natural sciences including elements of evolutionary biology biological taxonomy and geology Engaging both ecocritical theory and practice these authors more closely align ecocriticism with the physical environment with the wide range of texts and cultural practices that concern it and with the growing scholarly conversation that surrounds this concern

Ecocritics and Ecoskeptics Jonathan F. Krell, 2020-09-01 Ecocritics and Ecoskeptics examines environmental themes and questions about the evolving relationship between humans and animals in nine modern and contemporary French novels Considering arguments from both environmentalists and ecoskeptics it concludes that far from distancing itself from humanism as it often has environmentalism must embrace an inclusive and ecological humanism

Handbook of Ecocriticism and Cultural Ecology Hubert Zapf, 2016-05-10 Ecocriticism has emerged as one of the most fascinating and rapidly growing fields of recent literary and cultural studies From its regional origins in late twentieth century Anglo American academia it has become a worldwide phenomenon which involves a decidedly transdisciplinary and transnational paradigm that promises to return a new sense of relevance to research and teaching in the humanities A distinctive feature of the present handbook in comparison with other survey volumes is the combination of ecocriticism with cultural ecology reflecting an emphasis on the cultural transformation of ecological processes and on the crucial role of literature art and other forms of cultural creativity for the evolution of societies towards sustainable futures In state of the art contributions by leading international scholars in the field this handbook maps some of the most important developments in contemporary ecocritical thought It introduces key theoretical concepts issues and directions of ecocriticism and cultural ecology and demonstrates their relevance for the analysis of texts and other cultural phenomena

Asian American Literature and the Environment Lorna Fitzsimmons, Youngsuk Chae, Bella Adams, 2014-10-24 This book is a ground breaking transnational study of representations of the environment in Asian American literature Extending and renewing Asian American studies and ecocriticism by drawing the two fields into deeper dialogue it brings Asian American writers to the center of ecocritical studies This collection demonstrates the distinctiveness of Asian American writers' positions on topics of major concern today environmental justice identity and the land war environments consumption urban environments and the environment and creativity Represented
