Moore, 2017-07-05 This volume of essays references traditional and contemporary thought on theory and practice in music education for all age groups from the very young to the elderly The material spans a broad range of subject areas from history and philosophy to art and music and addresses issues such as curriculum pedagogy assessment and evaluation as well as current issues in technology and performance standards Written by leading researchers and educators from diverse countries and cultures this selection of previously published articles research studies and book chapters is representative of the most frequently discussed and debated topics in the profession This volume which documents the importance of lifelong learning is an indispensable reference work for specialists in the field of music education

Critical Approaches to Climate Change and Civic Action Anabela Carvalho, Julie Doyle, Chris Russill, 2021-09-10

Edinburgh Companion to the Critical Medical Humanities Whitehead Anne Whitehead, 2016-06-14 Original critical engagements at the intersection of the biomedical sciences arts humanities and social sciences In this landmark Companion expert contributors from around the world map out the field of the critical medical humanities This is the first volume to comprehensively introduce the ways in which interdisciplinary thinking across the humanities and social sciences might contribute to critique and develop medical understanding of the human individually and collectively The thirty six newly commissioned chapters range widely within and across disciplinary fields always alert to the intersections between medicine as broadly defined and critical thinking Each chapter offers suggestions for further reading on the issues raised and each section concludes with an Afterword written by a leading critic outlining future possibilities for cutting edge work in this area

Key Features Offers an introduction to the second wave of the field of the medical humanities Positions the humanities not as additive to medicine but as making a decisive intervention into how health medicine and clinical care might think about individual subjective and embodied experience Exemplifies the commitment of the critical medical humanities to genuinely interdisciplinary thinking by stimulating multi disciplinary dialogue around key areas of debate within the field Presents thirty six original chapters from leading and emergent scholars in the field who are defining its new critical edge

Critical Graphicacy Wolff-Michael Roth, Lilian Pozzer-Ardenghi, Jae Young Han, 2005-07-05 This book explores reading and interpretation practices related to visual materials here referred to as inscriptions that accompany texts Guiding questions include What practices are required for reading inscriptions and Do textbooks allow students to develop graphicacy skill required to critically read scientific texts The book reveals what it takes to interpret read and understand visual materials and what it takes to engage inscriptions in a critical way

Musical Creativity Guerino Mazzola, Joomi Park, Florian Thalmann, 2011-11-03 This book represents a new approach to musical creativity dealing with the semiotics mathematical principles and software for creativity processes After a thorough introduction the book offers a first practical part with a detailed tutorial for students in composition and improvisation using musical instruments and music software The second theoretical part deals with historical actual and new principles of creative processes in music based on the results and methods developed in the first author's book Topos of Music and referring to semiotics predicative objects topos theory and object oriented concept architectures The third part of the book details four case studies in musical creativity including an analysis of the six variations of Beethoven's sonata op 109 a discussion of the creative process in a CD coproduced in 2011 by the first and second authors a recomposition of Boulez's Structures pour deux pianos using the Rubato software module BigBang developed by the third author and the Escher theorem from mathematical gesture theory in music This is both a textbook addressed to undergraduate and graduate students of music composition and improvisation and also a state of the art survey addressed to researchers in creativity studies and music technology The book contains summaries and end of chapter questions and the authors have used the book as the main reference to teach an undergraduate creativity studies program and also to teach composition The text is supported throughout with musical score examples

Critical Animal Studies John Sorenson, 2014-04-21 Engaging and passionate this contemporary work provokes new ways of thinking about animal human interaction A cutting edge volume of original essays Critical Animal Studies examines our exploitation and commodification of non human animals By inquiring into the contradictions that have shaped our understanding of animals the contributors of this collection have set out to question the systemic oppression inherent in our treatment of animals The collection closes with a thoughtful consideration of some of the complexities of activism as well as a discussion of how to further the progress of animal rights Analyzing economic ethical historical and sociological aspects of human animal relations this interdisciplinary volume is a must read for all upper level students in animal studies critical animal studies animals and society and anthrozoology courses Features draws together contributions from some of the most active and committed individuals advancing the field of critical animal studies takes a revolutionary approach to mainstream animal studies by advocating for justice from a politically progressive abolitionist perspective supports curricular objectives of animal studies courses by encouraging students to critically analyze the shifting roles of animals in contemporary Western society and their consequences

Gestures Giovanni Maddalena, Fabio Ferrucci, Michela Bella, Matteo Santarelli, 2024-09-23 Over the past few years scientists and philosophers have discussed the concept of gesture as promising to overcome hyper intellectualist conceptions of human beings Its ascendancy reaffirmed the importance of the pragmatic relational dimension in human experience and cognitive processes Many questions arise when we focus on the cognitive role of gestures especially in the new cultural landscape shaped by the digital revolution Does the idea of gestures highlight the preeminence of bodily experiences Does it lead to the thinning of the distinction between humans and nonhuman animals Do gestures help us rethink the allegedly higher human capacities in an antireductionist vein Do gestures involve reasoning Are they purely external actions Do they serve to communicate or is all communication a form of gesture What kinds of social relations are involved in the concept of gesture According to a multidisciplinary orientation the book inquiries into the possibilities and issues opened up by attending to a philosophy of gestures in philosophy sociology psychology anthropology and communication studies Given the current centrality of gestures the general aim of the book is to reconsider the meaning of gestures and try to answer old and new questions Being-With in Contemporary Performing Arts Katia Arfara, Isabelle Barb  ris, Eliane Beaufigli, Chlo   D  chery, Leon Gabriel, Heiner Goebbels, Narges Hashempour, St  phane Herv  , Eva Holling, Ivana M  ller, Marie Preston, Bernhard Siebert, Gerald Siegmund, Marie Vandembussche-Cont, Kai van Eikels, 2018-11-01 The concept of being with developed by the philosopher Jean Luc Nancy asks a fundamental question about human life inasmuch as we have always been and will be co existent with people and environments All modes of sense making and subjectivation but also presence can only occur within a context and through interaction This is why historical forms of theater have frequently been viewed as sites of communality and why critical approaches have questioned concepts such as sense meaning and habitus Like literature theater has also inherited the scene of myth It satisfies our need for narration interpretation and to share in something In turn the joint creation of meaning in scenic practices is also part of the traditional idealization of the theater but is this ideal purely mythical The authors of this book investigate and explore how meaning is being questioned or liberated in contemporary performances and how individual thinking action can be articulated to others paving the way for other gestures theatrical processes of recognition and the performative sharing process of sense making Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting (2 vols.) Jean-Baptiste Du Bos, 2021-07-15 Jean Baptiste Du Bos Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting first published in French in 1719 is one of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du Bos was influenced by John Locke s empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language
