Digby, 2014-03-18 Original essays by noted scholars explore cooperative learning curriculum development and teaching strategies Focusing on grades 9 through 12 the volume first emphasizes theories underlying the use of selected cooperative learning strategies in secondary schools and then examines strategies and practical applications for classrooms Contributors include David Johnson Roger Johnson Ruven Lazarowitz Yael Sharan Shlomo Sharan Robert Slavin Karl Smith and others who have successfully implemented cooperative learning strategies in science math social studies English language arts and gifted and talented These contributors focus on how models are utilized and implemented Discussions involve obstacles that impede success problems and concerns solutions and suggestions for problem solving An index is provided Parents and Schools Angela L. Carrasquillo, Clement B. London, 2013-11-26 This book is based on the premise that schools and parents need to work together for the social emotional cognitive and academic development of children While the school provides a leadership model parents act as reinforcers of learning and prime movers in their children's education The authors emphasize throughout the book that parents and educators need to celebrate the pleasure of teaching In clear and accessible language this work presents theories on learning and human relations It then charts and reviews the important components of a successful school parent partnership giving specific recommendations on the best way to involve diverse groups of parents Chapters are US Families in the Context of Change The African American Experience in Family Context The Hispanic American Experience in Family Context The Asian American Experience in Family Context Communities of Education Concepts Defined Empowerment for all Parents Required A Positive Self Concept Successful Schools A Parents and Educators Partnership Successful Students Ability Effort and Parental Involvement Parents First and Most Important Teachers Recommendations for the Improvement of Parental School Involvement Advocacy for School and Home Partnership author and subject indexes Teaching English as a Second Language Angela L. Carrasquillo, 2013-10-15 First Published in 1994 Educators will welcome this cohesive and comprehensive volume on the research and practice of teaching English as a second language TESOL The author director of the TESOL program at Fordham University Graduate School of Education provides a holistic view of the field its practical and philosophical considerations Of particular interest is the coverage of such new research areas as ESL literacy cultural literacy thinking in a second language TSL and pragmatic writing Kits, Games, and Manipulatives for the Elementary School Classroom Andrea C. Hoffman, Ann M. Glannon, 1993 This comprehensive sourcebook which identifies and locates kits games and manipulatives is organized into broad subject areas including reading and language arts mathematics social studies science and health and the arts Some 1 500 entries provide physical descriptions of the materials and Instrumentation in Education Lloyd Bishop, Paula E. Lester, 1993 First Published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Teachers and Mentors Craig Kridel, Robert V. Bullough, Jr., Paul Shaker, 2014-10-29 The unique relationship between mentors and students informs the art of teaching and enhances the intellectual vitality of higher education and quality of teacher and student life This collection of original essays presents autobiographical vignettes of important professors of our time These essays reflect the appreciation of the authors now successful academics for their teachers mentors whose drive and creativity had such an influence on the careers of their students No other collection presents such an autobiographical and biographical portrayal of college of education faculty The essays examine what it means to be a professor in today's academia with its erosion of the professoriate and the emergence of a questionable entrepreneurial pragmatism The writers and their subjects explain their vision of the academic life sustained by a community and perpetuated through the lives of their teachers and their students a tradition not only in teaching but also in mentoring
