children families and adult provision and the emphasis on early intervention partnership considerations Ethics and Value Perspectives in Social Work Mel Gray, Stephen A. Webb, 2010-05-19 This agenda setting text explores a broad range of value perspectives and their impact on and contribution to social work thinking on ethics Including new perspectives such as Islam and drawing on international contributors this is essential reading for all social work students studying ethics and values Disabling Barriers - Enabling Environments John Swain, Sally French, Colin Barnes, Carol Thomas, 2013-11-10 Since it was first published in 1993 Disabling Barriers Enabling Environments has established itself as essential reading for anyone coming to the subject of disability studies The book tackles a wide range of issues in numerous succinct chapters written by contributing authors many of whom are disabled themselves From the outset the chapters take a multidisciplinary and international approach The third edition is made up of 42 chapters 15 of which are completely new to this edition including Early seminal writings in disabled studies Death and dying Psychology Hate crime and the criminal justice system Sport Psycho emotional disablism and internal oppression This seminal textbook conveys the continuing developments in the lives and experiences of disabled people It is valuable reading for students and professionals in the fields of social work sociology social policy health and nursing as well as disabled people Reimagining the Human Service Relationship Jaber F. Gubrium, Tone A. Andreassen, Per K. Solvang, 2016-07-05 The traditional lines of demarcation between service providers and service users are shifting Professionals in managed service organizations are working to incorporate the voices of service users into their missions and the way they function and service users with growing access to knowledge have taken on the semblances of professional expertise Additionally the human services environment has been transformed by administrative imperatives The drive toward greater efficiency and accountability has weakened the bond between users and providers Reimagining the Human Service Relationship is informed by the premise that the helping relationship should be seen as developing in the interactive space between those who provide human services and those who receive them The contributors to this volume redefine the contours roles institutional divisions means and aims of providing and receiving services in a range of settings including child welfare addiction treatment social enterprise doctoring mental health and palliative care Though they advocate an experience near approach they remain sensitive to the ambiguities and competing rationalities of the service relationship Taken together these chapters reimagine the service relationship by making visible the working relevancies of service delivery Researching with Care Tula Brannelly, Marian Barnes, 2022-10-24 What are the implications of caring about the things we research How does that affect how we research who we research with and what we do with our results Proposing what Joan C Tronto has called a paradigm shift in research thinking this book invites researchers across disciplines and fields of study to do research that thinks and acts with care The authors draw on their own and others experiences of researching the troubles they encounter and the opportunities generated when research is approached as a caring practice Care ethics provides a guide from starting out designing and conducting projects to thinking about research legacies It offers a way in which research can help repair harms and promote justice
