In the middle ground, a river flows through a valley, and a small, white, cylindrical tower stands on a hill. In the background, there are blue, misty mountains under a pale sky. The overall style is that of a classic landscape painting.

The Crossroads of Time Sarah Woodbury, They dream in their own times They struggle in their own places They meet at the crossroads The road they choose to take will decide if they live or die Chloe loves to listen to music but when the music starts listening to her she begins to wonder Try as she might she can't dismiss the strange things happening in her life as mere coincidence Could some spirit be trying to send her a message She tries to live a normal life as a student at California State University but the more she tries the more bizarre her life becomes From the moment Chloe consults a Candomblé priestess to find out what's what the events in her life spin from uncanny to numinous As her visions become more corporal Chloe gets literally swept out of her 21st century Los Angeles world in the stormy vortex of Oya the African Orisha of the wind Oya takes Chloe on a journey through time that throws her into the world of Ayodele her 19th century ancestor on a Virginia tobacco plantation Both women share dreams of achieving more in life than is expected of them as women and as African Americans At the Crossroads they must decide which costs more struggling to fulfill their dreams or letting them die and which price are they willing to pay
