The Crucible (1996)

The Crucible is a 1996 film adaptation of the play by Arthur Miller, which is set in Salem, Massachusetts, in the late 17th century. The story revolves around a group of young girls who are caught dancing in the forest, an act that is considered witchcraft. To avoid punishment, they accuse other people in the town of practicing witchcraft as well.

The accusations quickly spiral out of control, and the town becomes consumed by hysteria and fear. The main character, John Proctor, is a farmer who is accused of witchcraft by his former servant, Abigail Williams. Despite being innocent, Proctor is faced with the difficult decision of whether to confess to a crime he didn't commit or to maintain his innocence and risk being hanged.
