Crucified People The Suffering Of The Tortured In Todays World:

Crucified People John Neafsey, 2014-02-10 Through the passion of Christ a psychologist and theologian struggles to understand and respond to the ongoing practice of torture Rethinking Life Shane Claiborne, 2023-02-07 Drawing on Scripture church history and his own story Shane Claiborne explores how a passion for social justice issues surrounding life and death such as war gun ownership the death penalty racial injustice abortion poverty and the environment intersects with our faith as we advocate for life in its totality Many of us wonder how to think about and act on issues of life and death beyond abortion and the death penalty yet the heated debates in our churches and the confusion of our own hearts sometimes feel overwhelming What does a balanced Christian view of what it means to be pro life really look like Combining stories theological reflection and a little wit with a Southern accent activist Shane Claiborne explores the battle between life and death that goes back to the Garden of Eden Shane draws on his childhood growing up in the Bible Belt his own change of perspective on how to advocate for life and his years of working on behalf of all people to help us Learn from the Bible and the early church about valuing life Deepen our understanding of what a pro life stance can look like Discover ways to discuss topics that are dividing our culture and churches Find encouragement when we feel politically homeless Renew our hope that there is a good way forward even in difficult times We need a new movement that stands up for life without exceptions This moving and incredibly timely book creates a larger framework for thinking about God's love and our faith as we embrace a consistent ethic that values human life from womb to tomb

Religion, Torture and the Liberation of God Mario I Aguilar, 2015-04-17 If God can be used by the powerful to justify violence in the name of order he can also be used by the weak to illuminate the position of the victims of political conflict Religion Torture and the Liberation of God explores the theological possibilities of a God who is a prisoner and a victim of torture The book relocates God to the horrors of the military abuse of human rights in Chile and the systematic rape of women in the Democratic Republic of Congo Aguilar argues that this theological exercise offers us new ways of understanding the abuse of power whether it be the clerical abuse of children violence against women or homophobia This examination of torture and rape becomes through a theology of praxis and compliance an examination of solidarity love and affection The book concludes with an exploration of the possibilities of a tortured God who liberates

Feminist Theologies Stephen Burns, Rebekah Pryor, 2023-01-24 This assemblage of feminist theologies represents a series of vital entanglements Chapters are written from different cultures geographies and discourses and brought together around themes as specific and wide ranging as immigration detention hate crime discrimination rites of marriage and partnership and artistic and religious imagination The contributors variously echo celebrate question and contradict each other Despite the complexity and allied as they are with liberation decolonial ecological queer and other theologies these perspectives seek not only to confront and resist the problems oppressions and omissions of hegemonic theologies but also to realize better worlds When Did we See You Naked? Jayme R. Reaves, David

Tombs,Rocio Figueroa,2021-03-31 Was the stripping and exposure of Jesus a form of sexual abuse If so why does such a reading of Jesus suffering matter The combined impact of the MeToo movement and a further wave of global revelations on church sexual abuse have given renewed significance to recent work naming Jesus as a victim of sexual abuse Timely and provocative When did we see you naked presents the arguments for reading Christ as an abuse victim as well as exploring how the position might be critiqued and what implications and applications it might offer to the Church The Crucifixion of Jesus David Tombs,2022-11-28 Roman crucifixions sought to degrade and dehumanise their victims in ways that destroyed their dignity and stigmatised their memory Paul speaks of the cross as a scandal or stumbling block but the significance of this language has never been explored in terms of sexual violence The Crucifixion of Jesus examines crucifixion as a form of torture state terror and sexual abuse It reads recent accounts of torture alongside the presentation of crucifixion in the Passion narratives and other Greek and Roman sources Outlining compelling reasons for viewing Jesus as a victim of sexual abuse it examines why this unsettling aspect of the narrative has remained hidden in plain sight for so long and what place it might have in discussions of rape culture past and present It also asks whether other acts of sexual violence and rape might have happened during the mockery in the praetorium or even on the cross itself It argues that although the acknowledgement of this unspeakable violence is deeply disturbing breaking the silence can nonetheless have constructive consequences In addition to offering a more historical understanding of crucifixion this book illuminates positive new aspects of resurrection making it a probing read for scholars of biblical studies and for those interested in the interplay of religion and violence Act Justly, Love Tenderly Neafsey, John,2016-10-13 Inspired by the words of the prophet Michah to act justly love tenderly and walk humbly before God the author describes how we realize our vocation to holiness as it is expressed throughout the various stages of life Human Dignity, Human Rights, and Social Justice Zhibin Xie,Pauline Kollontai,Sebastian Kim,2020-06-25 This book explores human dignity human rights and social justice based on a Chinese interdisciplinary dialogue and global perspectives In the Chinese and other global contexts today social justice has been a significant topic among many disciplines and we believe it is an appropriate topic for philosophers theologians legal scholars and social scientists to sit together discuss enrich each other and then deepen our understanding of the topic Many of them are concerned with the conjuncture between social justice human rights and human dignity The questions this volume asks are what s the place of human rights in social justice How is human dignity important in the discourse on human rights And through these inquiries we ask further how is possible to achieve humanist justice This volume presents the significance challenges and constraints of human dignity in human rights and social justice and addresses the questions through philosophical theological sociological political and legal perspectives and these are placed in dialogue between the Chinese and other global settings We are concerned with the norms regarding human dignity human rights and social justice while we take seriously into account their practice This volume consists of two main sections The first section examines Chinese perspectives on human rights and social justice in which both from Confucianism and Christianity are considered and the issues such as patriotism religious freedom petition social protest the rights of marginalized people and sexual violence are studied The second section presents the perspectives of Christian public theologians in the global contexts They examine the influence of Christian thought and practice in the issues of human rights and social justice descriptively and prescriptively and address issues such as religious laws and rights diaconia majoritarianism general equality social economic disparities and climate justice from global perspectives including in the contexts of America Australia Israel and Europe With contributions by experts from mainland China Hong Kong South Korea Australia New Zealand the UK USA and Norway the book provides valuable cross cultural and interdisciplinary insights and perspectives As such it will appeal to political and religious leaders and practitioners particularly those working in socially engaged religious and civil organizations in various geopolitical contexts including the Korean Peninsula and Japan

Jesus Christ for Today's World Jürgen

Moltmann, Margaret Kohl, 1995-08-21 Jürgen Moltmann formulates necessary questions about the significance of Jesus the Christ for persons today He offers a compelling portrait of the earthly Jesus as the divine brother in our distress and suffering and points to the risen Christ as the warrant for the future in which God will restore everything and gather everything into his kingdom Urging that acknowledgment of Christ and discipleship are two sides of the same coin Moltmann contends that the question of Jesus Christ for today is not just an intellectual one Moltmann takes fresh approaches to a number of crucial topics Jesus and the kingdom of God the passion of Christ and the pain of God Jesus as brother of the tortured and the resurrection of Christ as hope for the world the cosmic Christ Jesus in Jewish Christian dialogue the future of God and others

Transgressing Race Jione Havea, Y. T. Vinayaraj, 2023-08-22 Transgressing is an appropriate response to race as a crime against humanity No one chooses their race at birth yet many suffer because of their race And while many people choose to change citizenship their accents and faces can give them away as outsiders Racism thrives on the categorization of people according to their race Like the Black and White dichotomy other racial and ethnic discriminations such as casteism antisemitism Zionism xenophobia and Islamophobia undergird and promote segregation all around the world Dismantling racism requires challenging racialized oppressions and segregations in sacred texts and contexts in beloved traditions and hallowed theologies This book offers such biblical and theological discourses in order to transgress the discriminative segregations of racism in connection with other forms of exploitative systems or systems The book engages with racialized biblical texts and religious theologies with acts of racial discrimination in connection with slavery and colonialism with agonies of people in diaspora struggles of postcolonial minoritized people courage of indigenous people to subvert and with the race insensitive practices of theological and religious education The contributors are located in Africa Asia North America Europe and Oceania
