Relics of the Past Stefanie Gänger, 2014-05-29 Relics of the Past tells the story of antiquities collecting antiquarianism and archaeology in Peru and Chile in the second half of the nineteenth and the early twentieth century While the role of foreign travellers and scholars dedicated to the study of South America's pre-Columbian past is well documented historians have largely overlooked the knowledge gathered and the collections formed among collectors of antiquities antiquaries and archaeologists born or living in South America during this period The landed gentry the clergy and an urban bourgeoisie of doctors engineers and military officials put antiquities on display in their private mansions or bestowed them upon the public museums that were being formed by municipalities and governments in Santiago de Chile Cuzco or Lima Men and some few women gathered antiquities on their journeys inland and during sociable weekend excursions but also on quotidian commercial voyages or in military campaigns They bartered antiquities with their fellow collectors or haggled about their price on the antiquities market In their hours of leisure they marvelled at them wrote about them and disputed over their meaning age and interest in learned societies informal gatherings and at meetings in universities and public museums This volume unveils a hitherto largely unknown world of antiquarian and archaeological collecting and learning in Peru and Chile
