Critical Mass Chuck Brown, 2014-09-12 Proceedings : Western Regional Meeting Society of Petroleum Engineers (U.S.) Western Regional Meeting, 1995 Global Future Arnoud DeMeyer, 2005-05-09 Look at any list of truly global companies those with integrated management and operations across multiple borders and one notes that Asian companies are sorely underrepresented Notwithstanding the early internationalization successes of Japanese and Korean conglomerates and the more recent international forays by Chinese companies one must recognize that much of the promise of Asian multinationals leading a Pacific century has yet to be realized Global Future The Next Challenge of Asian Business is a direct response to growing ambitions of Asian companies to go global and the rising pressures on them to internationalize Advancements in technology industry changes and political shifts have fundamentally reshaped the structure of competition thus challenging the traditional strengths of Asian companies For corporations that have grown large on the back of national protection and information asymmetries the environment has become tougher than ever By profiling early pioneers and leading contemporary globalizers the authors show how Asian companies can best climb the globalization staircase and develop the strategies and capabilities needed to succeed in a global future Companies profiled include From Japan Sony Kikkoman From Korea Samsung Electronics From Hong Kong Li Fung From Singapore Singapore Telecom Olam From Taiwan Uni President From Mainland China ICBC China Netcom Climate Bridge Wolfram Höfer, Arianna Lindberg, Sebastian Schlecht, Angela Oberg, Frank Gallagher, 2025-06-17 Climate change is creating new challenges for spatial and environmental planning on both sides of the Atlantic Planning and policy must balance moderating climate change impact from rising temperatures extreme precipitation and sea level rise with social equity and environmental justice Climate Bridge compares New Jersey and the German Ruhr region to build an international perspective on how to enact climate action at the government public interface The book grew from fifteen years of collaboration between scholars in New Jersey and Germany through summer programs a landscape architecture design studio internships for Rutgers University students and joint publications Notably settlement patterns and brownfield issues reveal similarities between the underserved in both regions The first section compares international environmental planning approaches and outlines different approaches to common problems The second section presents case studies that highlight adaptation strategies for uncertainties caused by climate change Finally the closing section reminds us of our dependence on ecological systems for physical mental and emotional well being Contributors to this landmark volume include planners designers scholars public administrators and decision makers on both sides of the Atlantic Together the chapters bring interdisciplinary approaches and diverse perspectives to the environmental economic political and social dimensions of planning and design in the context of climate change Medical Leadership Jill Aylott, Jeff Perring, Ann Chapman, Ahmed Nassef, 2018-10-17 Today s health care systems need doctors and consultants to act as leaders within the multi disciplinary team in addition to carrying out their clinical role This book identifies the key elements of successful leadership through medically led service development and systems transformation and shows how this benefits patient care particularly when patients become partners in the process The authors provide a conceptual framework of medical leadership and a set of scientific methods and tools that make a significant contribution to advancing quality and transforming services in healthcare On top of this they present analytical tools which medical professionals can use to support their own improvement or system transformation strategy including ways of measuring improvement and the returns on investment of medical leadership Woven throughout the book are real life case studies from medical leaders across the world providing students with valuable practical insights Chapter summaries and reflections are provided to support learning Medical Leadership will be essential reading for students on medical and clinical leadership courses internationally as well as for all practising doctors consultants and General Practitioners

An Army Afire Beth Bailey,2023-03-15 By the late 1960s what had been widely heralded as the best qualified best trained army in US history was descending into crisis as the Vietnam War raged without end Morale was tanking AWOL rates were rising And in August 1968 a group of Black soldiers seized control of the infamous Long Binh Jail burned buildings and beat a white inmate to death with a shovel The days of same mud same blood were over and a new generation of Black GIs had decisively rejected the slights and institutional racism their forefathers had endured As Black and white soldiers fought in barracks and bars with violence spilling into surrounding towns within the US and in West Germany Vietnam South Korea and Japan army leaders grew convinced that the growing racial crisis undermined the army s ability to defend the nation Acclaimed military historian Beth Bailey shows how the US Army tried to solve that racial crisis in army terms the problem of race Army leaders were surprisingly creative in confronting demands for racial justice even willing to challenge fundamental army principles of discipline order hierarchy and authority Bailey traces a frustrating yet fascinating story as a massive conservative institution came to terms with demands for change
