American Film Noir Genres, Characters, and Settings Harold

Hellwig,2023-03-20 American Film Noir Genres Characters and Settings argues that film noir style evolved out of American literature prior to the 1930s and continues to evolve long after the classic films that defined its presence in cinema While many critics suggest that the film noir tradition ceased after the mid 1950s labeling similar films produced later as neo noir Harold Hellwig contends that film noir itself has continued to evolve beyond cinema to include television series such as CSI Have Gun Will Travel and Frasier among others Hellwig posits that rather than being a single genre in and of itself film noir comprises several genres including detective procedurals science fiction the Western and even comedy This book examines different elements of American film noir including the characters and settings it is often defined by and its contexts within different adaptations in both film and television Scholars of film studies American literature and media studies will find this book of particular interest

Transnational Horror Cinema Sophia Siddique,Raphael Raphael,2017-02-24 This book broadens the frameworks by which horror is generally addressed Rather than being constrained by psychoanalytical models of repression and castration the volume embraces M M Bakhtin s theory of the grotesque body For Bakhtin the grotesque body is always a political body one that exceeds the boundaries and borders that seek to contain it to make it behave and conform This vital theoretical intervention allows Transnational Horror Cinema to widen its scope to the social and cultural work of these global bodies of excess and the economy of their grotesque exchanges With this in mind the authors consider these bodies potentials to explore and perhaps to explode rigid cultural scripts of embodiment including gender race and ability

No Single Trajectory ,2024-07-15 This book presents papers by eleven European scholars that explore the ambivalent representations of an American West that follows no single trajectory creating instead a series of lines and rhythms always moving crossing and folding Neil Campbell The papers explore the use of the American West as an ideal or a realistic setting in different cultural productions ranging from music Sing along Melodies of the West to film Western Images in Motion or comics Graphic Representations of the American West and including popular cultural fields like podcasts fashion and gastronomy Performing the West Latinx Representation in Contemporary Popular Culture and New Media, 2024-08-19 This volume provides a partial mapping of the ambivalent representational forms and cultural politics that have characterized Latinx identity since the 1990s looking at literary and popular culture texts as well as new media expressions The chapters tackle themes related to the diversity of Latinx culture and experience as represented in different media the borderland context issues related to gender and sexuality the US Mexico borderland context and the connections between spatiality and Latinx self representation sketching the now of Latinx representation and considering that Latinx is an unstable signifier and the present as well as culture and media are always in motion Style in Narrative Patrick Colm Hogan, 2020-11-25 Drawing on recent psychological research this book proposes a new and clear definition of style and provides a systematic theoretical account of style in relation to cognitive and affective science Patrick Hogan uses rich examples from literature film and graphic fiction to explain the narrative thematic and emotional functions of style in narrative
