Decolonial Environmentalisms David J. Vázquez, 2025 In Decolonial Environmentalisms David Vázquez provides material strategies for understanding how Latinx environmental thinking over the past three decades interrogates environmental harm and the ways racial capitalism the idea that racism is a structuring logic of capitalism and colonialism are embedded in some forms of mainstream environmentalism Vázquez critiques the ways that dialogues on environmental degradation have frequently ignored or minimally engaged with Latinx thought and cultural works on these issues As he points out and we frequently see now with climate change environmental damage does not affect everyone equally He argues that most ecocriticism when it does engage with Latinx work tends to draw from the same few sources again and again and often misreads their intentions Decolonial Environmentalisms considers multiple genres and forms novels films visual art and short stories created by authors from multiple ethnic communities Chicanx Puerto Rican Dominican Cuban American Peruvian and Central American into this conversation This approach makes it possible to shape a more nuanced account of how Latinxs from multiple racial class gender sexual and other identity positions think about and represent environmental ideas By doing so he asks what do Latinx environmental representations do How do they convey their imaginaries And especially how do Latinx authors and artists imagine a more just and equitable material outcome for the characters and situations they depict Flying Magazine ,1959-06
