Cross Shattered Christ Meditations On The Seven Last Words:

Cross-Shattered Christ Stanley Hauerwas, 2004 A theologically rich meditative reading of Christ's final words from the cross drawing readers to devotion in Lent and throughout the church year

Cross-Shattered Christ Stanley Hauerwas, 2005-01-01 In Cross Shattered Christ theologian Stanley Hauerwas offers a moving reflection on Jesus's final words from the cross This small and powerful volume is theologically poignant and steeped in humility Hauerwas's pithy discussion opens our ears to the language of Scripture while opening our hearts to a truer vision of God Touching in original and surprising ways on subjects such as praying the Psalms and our need to be remembered by Jesus Hauerwas emphasizes Christ's humanity as well as the sheer differentness of God Ideal for personal devotion during Lent and throughout the year Cross Shattered Christ offers a transformative reading of Jesus's words that goes directly to the heart of the gospel

For the Life of the World Robert J. Dean, 2016-05-13 What is the church What is its mission in the world Modern Protestantism's inability to provide a clear answer to these seemingly simple questions has resulted in vast confusion amongst pastors about the nature of their calling and has left congregations languishing without a clear reason for existence Many of the voices and allegiances competing for the church's attention have rushed in to fill the void with the result that the church in modernity has frequently found itself captive to the prevailing culture Yet from within the belly of highly culturally accommodated churches both the German pastor theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the American theological ethicist Stanley Hauerwas were able to articulate compelling visions of churches freed from their cultural captivity in order to truly and freely serve God and neighbor Against the complex and confusing backdrops of Nazi Germany and late twentieth and early twenty first century America respectively Bonhoeffer and Hauerwas sought to recover the ethical and political character of the Christian faith through recalling the church back to the christological center of its faith Together they provide a rich set of complementary and at times mutually correcting resources for the contemporary church as it seeks to faithfully bear witness to Christ amidst the ruins of Christendom

Minding the Web Stanley Hauerwas, Robert J. Dean, 2018-11-06 For over forty years Stanley Hauerwas has been writing theology that matters In this new collection of essays lectures and sermons Hauerwas continues his life's work of exploring the theological web discovering and recovering the connections necessary for the church to bear faithful witness to Christ in our complex and changing times Hauerwas enters into conversation with a diverse array of interlocutors as he brings new insights to bear on matters theological delves into university matters demonstrates how lives matter and continues in his passionate commitment to the matter of preaching Essays by Robert Dean illumine the connections that have made Hauerwas's theological web slinging so significant and demonstrate why Hauerwas's sermons have a crucial role to play in the recovery of a gospel shaped homiletical imagination

A Revitalization of Images Gregory C. Higgins, 2019-03-05 The philosopher theologian and biblical scholar Austin Farrer 1904-1968 highlighted in his various writings the central role that images play in the interpretation of biblical writings the construction of theological arguments and the descriptions of the Christian spiritual life Theologians down through the centuries have sought to revitalize the central biblical images as they addressed the pressing theological moral and spiritual questions of their day A Revitalization of Images offers students the opportunity to participate in this ongoing creative engagement with ten dominant biblical images that continue to shape the church's beliefs and practices as well as each Christian's own spiritual journey Sound theology is rooted in Scripture conversant with past thinkers and engaged in the present life of the church This dynamic directly informs Revitalization In each chapter we begin with a biblical image that has figured prominently in the Christian theological tradition Next we examine two prominent voices from the Christian tradition who have drawn upon the image when crafting a compelling vision of the Christian life We then turn our attention to a contemporary thinker who has incorporated or critiqued the image in his or her own theological work This discussion is set within the current spectrum of theological positions including orthodox liberal postliberal and postmodern perspectives

Raging with Compassion John Swinton, 2017-10-30 In Raging with Compassion Michael Ramsey prize winning author John Swinton argues for a practical theodicy one embodied in the life and practices of the Christian community This practicality does not seek to provide an explanation for the existence of evil but rather presents ways in which evil and suffering can be resisted and transformed This he insists will enable Christians to live faithfully with unanswered questions as they await God's redemption of the whole creation Swinton explores essential practices of redemption lament forgiveness thoughtfulness hospitality and friendship drawing out their implications for the faithful resistance of evil Enhanced by case studies from current events and by Swinton's own experience as a pastor and mental health nurse Raging with Compassion seeks to inspire fresh Christian responses and modes of practice in our broken fallen world

The Word Leaps the Gap J. Ross Wagner, C. Kevin Rowe, A. Katherine Grieb, 2008-11-05 This is a collection of essays to celebrate Richard Hays 60th birthday It is written by colleagues and friends whose scholarly imaginations have been sparked in numerous ways by his insights

The Work of Theology Stanley Hauerwas, 2015 Postliberal Theology and the Church Catholic George A. Lindbeck, 2012-04 Examines the Roman Catholic roots of postliberal theology via conversations with three seminal postliberal theologians George Lindbeck David Burrell and Stanley Hauerwas

Putting on the Mind of Christ Woods, James E., 2021-02-17 Putting on the Mind of Christ examines the biblical historical scientific and theological aspects of contemplative prayer and mysticism that has the effect of changing our outlook on the world and seeing God and neighbor as a holistic unity
