The Crucible: Words and SO Questions

Directions: Use the SO questions to prepare for the TEST that will be administered during the completion of our study of the play, The Crucible. You will record your definitions and answers in your interactive composition notebooks. Make sure to identify them by titling each entry and documenting it in the table of contents. Words: indicate the part of speech and define each word (however: write a sentence using the word). SO Questions: answer to the best of your ability. Tip: Define the words before reading or act as you go into it with a better understanding!

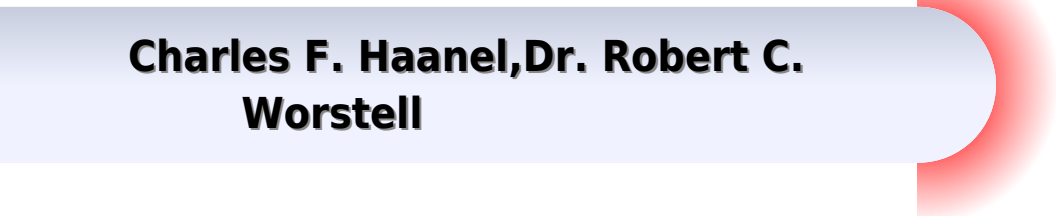

Act I—pages 1-86

Word study:

- Proclivity—(n): prevailing preference
 - Some families in the Salem village had a stronger proclivity for believing in the evidence than others; hence the situation with the girls' "illness" was started.
- Ingratulating—(adj): charming; flattering
 - Abigail initially has an ingratiating personality, which causes John Proctor to become involved with her.
- Dissembling—(v): lying, concealing one's intentions
 - Abigail has a strong ability for dissembling to the point that many of the adults in the town would believe her even when they even knew to be logically possible or true.
- Calamity—(n): false accusations; disaster
 - Abigail defended herself vehemently against the supposed calamity being spread against her reputation in the village.
- Compact—(v): make an agreement; enter into a contract
 - Finally, the Puritan family there, was accused of compacting with the devil since the girls started to behave like that helping them conjure up spirits in the forest.
- Notorious—(adj): widely and unfavorably known
 - Puritans are notorious for placing too much of judgment on anyone who they believe to be a sinner.
- Grudge—(n): would no escape by divine or demonic
 - Reverend Hale would not allow Abigail to grudge his questioning about what happened in the forest.
- Prodigious—(adj): abnormal, unusual
 - Due to the girls' prodigious behavior after being discovered dancing in the forest, their families were forced to call in an expert in the demonic arts.

Reader Response in Secondary and College Classrooms Nicholas J. Karolides, 2013-04-15 This text based on Louise M Rosenblatt s transactional model of literature focuses on the application of transactional reader response theory in the classroom It grows from frequent requests from secondary school and college teachers for teaching suggestions on how to put theory into practice This is not a What should I do on Monday cookbook but an expression of the practice of theory in college and secondary school classrooms The chapters portray a spectrum of strategies including biopoems expressive and imaginative writing journal writing readers theater role playing and unsent letters using as examples individual works from several genres Recognizing that teachers who may have been trained in other theories and methodologies may be hesitant about their quite different role and expectations in the reader centered classroom the authors provide stepping stones to develop readiness and confidence suggestions and insights to ease the transition to the transactional model of teaching and learning

Pedagogical features An explanatory introduction to each section defines its orientation and describes the content and direction of the chapters it contains

Invitations elicit engagement of readers with concepts attitudes or strategies presented in the chapters they invite readers as individuals or members of a small group to consider ideas or to practice a strategy among other activities in order to enhance understandings

A glossary defines key concepts and strategies discussed in the text

A bibliography provides an extensive list of resources books and journal articles both theoretical and applied

New in the second edition

Six new chapters three deal with the roles of film as literature in the English classroom and three with enhancing multicultural understandings

Updates and revisions to several chapters that appeared in the first edition

Invitations new in this edition have been added to focus and expand readers thinking
