Dazzle Gradually Lynn Margulis, Dorion Sagan, 2007 A collection of essays covering a variety of scientific topics including the nature of technology to the human body evolution and ecology

Queer/Adaptation Pamela Demory, 2019-02-15 This collection of essays illuminates the intersection of queer and adaptation Both adaptation and queerness suffer from the stereotype of being secondary to identify something as an adaptation is to recognize it in relation to something else that seems more original more authentic Similarly to identify something as queer is to place it in relation to what is assumed to be normal or straight This ground breaking volume brings together fifteen original essays that critically challenge these assumptions about originality authenticity and value The volume is organized in three parts The essays in Part I examine what happens when an adaptation queers its source text and explore the role of the author screenwriter director in making those choices The essays in Part II look at what happens when filmmakers push against boundaries of various kinds time and space texts and bodies genres and formats And the essays in Part III explore adaptations whose source texts cannot be easily pinned down where there are multiple adaptations and where the adaptation process itself is queer The book includes discussion of a wide variety of texts including opera classic film genre fiction documentary musicals literary fiction low budget horror camp classics and experimental texts providing a comprehensive and interdisciplinary introduction to the myriad ways in which queer and adaptation overlap

Dazzle Gradually, 1997 Reading the "new" Literatures in a Postcolonial Era Susheila Nasta, 2000 Essays on the contribution of African Caribbean Asian and diaspora writers to English literature The new literatures have most commonly been seen as a staging post en route to the current post colonial era Yet these literatures and the diverse cultural histories they represent are older than such recent interpretations of them This collection of essays investigates ways in which we can return to reading these new literatures without falling back on current critical assumptions Oxford Studies in Ancient Philosophy, Volume 57 Victor Caston, 2020-01-21 Oxford Studies in Ancient Philosophy is a volume of original articles on all aspects of ancient philosophy The articles may be of substantial length and include critical notices of major books OSAP is now published twice yearly in both hardback and paperback Have you seen the latest OSAP is what scholars of ancient philosophy say to each other when they meet in corridors or on coffee breaks Whether you work on Plato or Aristotle on Presocratics or sophists on Stoics Epicureans or Sceptics on Roman philosophers or Greek Neoplatonists you are liable to find OSAP articles now dominant in the bibliography of much serious published work in your particular subject not safe to miss Malcolm Schofield Cambridge University OSAP was founded to provide a place for long pieces on major issues in ancient philosophy In the years since it has fulfilled this role with great success over and over again publishing groundbreaking papers on what seemed to be familiar topics and others surveying new ground to break It represents brilliantly the vigour and the increasingly broad scope of scholarship in ancient philosophy and shows us all how the subject should flourish M M McCabe King s College London Preaching Hebrews Douglas D. Webster, 2017-10-09 Hebrews is a powerful meditation on the gospel It is a sixty minute sermon delivered to a worshipping congregation The spiraling impact of theological exposition and pastoral exhortation is impressive Hebrews weans us away from our preoccupation with the start of the Christian life and focuses our attention on the perseverance of faith Life is not a sprint it s a marathon Faithfulness to the end affirms faith from the beginning If we let the word of God have its way with us Hebrews will deepen our faith in Christ and strengthen our faithfulness Like Jesus in the Gospels Hebrews sees the fundamental difference between apostasy and faithfulness as the difference between a religion about God and a Christ centered relationship with God Any form of Christianity that competes like other religions for the attention of its adherents through its rituals practices pastors traditions and sacred spaces has fallen back into an obsolete and worldly strategy The pastor calls for a decisive end to religion even the best religion ever conceived The flow of reasoned argument for Christ and against religion along with the pulsating emotional intensity of ultimate issues laid bare and heart felt warnings against complacency and unbelief deliver a powerful and timely message
