that has always relied on secrecy friendship and the exchange of favors She describes how Louchheim codified the practices of architectural publicity that have become widely adopted today and shows how without Louchheim as his wife and publicist Saarinen's work would not have been nearly as well known Providing a new understanding of postwar architectural history in the United States When Eero Met His Match is both a poignant love story and a superb biographical study that challenges us to reconsider the relationship between fame and media representation and the ways the narratives of others can become our own
