Desperate Steps Choices Mountains Northeast:

Death on Mount Washington Randi Minetor, 2018-05-01 On Mount Washington it's lack of preparation not the mountain that kills. The weather is highly changeable with wind gusts of 140 mph and 35 degree temps. Then there are the avalanches and icefalls. Combine this with inexperienced hikers in t-shirts and flip-flops and things can get ugly fast. Death on Mount Washington describes the circumstances behind the tragic tales of those who have lost their lives on the mountain. No one, not even the most experienced mountaineer or pilot, is safe from the mountain's mercurial weather conditions. Learn from the mistakes of others in the comfort and safety of your armchair and remember to respect Mount Washington on your next ski trip.

Critical Hours Sandy Stott, 2018-04-03 A misread map, a sudden storm, a forgotten headlamp, and suddenly a leisurely hike turns into a treacherous endeavor. In the past decade, inexpensive but sophisticated navigation devices and mobile phones have led to alarming levels of overconfidence on the trail. Adding to this worrisome trend, the increasing popularity of ventures into mountainous terrain has led hikers seeking solitude or an adrenaline rush into increasingly remote or risky forays. Sandy Stott, the Accidents editor at the journal of the Appalachian Mountain Club, delivers both a history and a celebration of the search and rescue workers who save countless lives in the White Mountains, along with a plea for us not to take their steadfastness and bravery for granted. Filled with tales of astonishing courage and sobering tragedy, Critical Hours will appeal to outdoor enthusiasts and armchair adventurers alike.

Death on Katahdin Randi Minetor, 2018-09-14 Mount Katahdin in Baxter State Park is Maine's highest mountain. It is also the northern terminus of the Appalachian Trail. Tucked away in the remote North Woods, it is an adventure seeker's paradise. Hiking, climbing, backpacking, snowshoeing, backcountry skiing, and ice climbing are among the activities pursued there, and there has been a similar range in the ways people have met their demise on the mountain. In the park, Randi Minetor gathers the stories of these fatalities, from falls to exposure to cardiac arrest, and presents dozens of misadventures, including hunting accidents, lightning strikes, and even more than one suspicious death. It's a fascinating addition to the North Woods canon.

Desperate Steps Peter Kick, 2015 From the publisher of Not Without Peril and No Limits But the Sky, this collection seeks the lessons learned from twenty stories of backcountry incidents, from close calls to unsolved mysteries. First-hand accounts, route maps, photos, and expert analysis from Search and Rescue professionals illuminate the realities faced in the Northeastern wilds. Readers who immerse themselves in these near misses, methodical searches, and the gut-wrenching clarity of hindsight will be better prepared for whatever the wilderness brings.
