

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the issue. It is crucial to define the scope and objectives of the project clearly.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to develop a plan. This involves breaking down the problem into smaller, manageable tasks and determining the resources and timeline needed to complete each task.

3. The third step is to implement the plan. This involves executing the tasks according to the schedule and monitoring progress to ensure that the project stays on track.
