Detours Discipleship And Dangling Participles:

Detours, Discipleship and Dangling Participles Ricard Ware, 2014-03-01 Detours Discipleship and Dangling Participles are stories poems and songs of my life s journey Some will make you cry some will make you laugh and some will have you smiling through your tears A man s gotta do what a man s gotta do I made that statement to my mother over 30 years ago It was one of those times when I had a better idea to do a project I was working on My mother who was watching as the intelligence light bulb flickered asked me why I was doing it that way That s when I uttered those words Of course once I finished the project and it didn t end up as I had planned mom repeated those words back to me Well I guess a man s gotta do what a man s gotta do For the rest of her life when I would stumble down the road or end up stuck in the ditch of life mom reminded me with those remarks so many years ago Moms have such a remarkable sense of humor Being a truck driver I often make detours from a planned route and end up on a street filled with ruts and potholes The same goes for my life s journey I often wonder how many times my Lord and Savior watches me with His arms folded across His chest and wonder why I got off track And there are times when I think He watches me mess up my life and I think maybe He speaks with the Father and says Father look what Richard is doing now I guess a man s gotta do what a man s gotta do Ain t it fun to be human
