Deuteronomy And The Deuteronomic School:

Deuteronomy and the Deuteronomic School Moshe Weinfeld, 1992 By means of a threefold approach typological analysis of literary forms investigation of religious ideology and study of didactic aims and methods Weinfeld shows that the deuteronomic composition was the creation of scribal circles who began their work some time prior to the reign of Josiah and were still at work after the fall of Judah Includes a 46 page detailed appendix on deuteronomic phraseology This volume is a reprint of the 1972 Oxford edition The Provenance of Deuteronomy and the Deuteronomic School Moshe Weinfeld, 1964

Time and Place in Deuteronomy James Gordon McConville, J. G. Millar, 1995-01-01 The book is a literary and theological study of the themes of time and place which aims to set the so called centralization law of Deut 12 26 in the broad context of the book The authors show that time and place are pervasive themes of Deuteronomy a crucial part of its articulation of its understanding of history religion and ethics The heart of the thesis is that the foundational encounter between God and Israel at Horeb is paradigmatic for all subsequent encounters For this reason no one time or place can have final or absolute significance The thesis thus calls into question the received view that the altar law of Deut 12 26 is a centralization law associated with Josiah s reform The refusal to identify the place is no mere device against anachronism but a consistent element in Deuteronomy s theology of history The Connection between Deuteronomy and Josiah s reform has long been an important tenet of Old Testament criticism The debate about the interpretation of Deuteronomy however has never been finally settled The present study looks in a new way at the so called centralization law of Deuteronomy which has been the most important factor in the traditional critical view of the book It sets the law in the context of a broadly based study of the theology of the book and comes to conclusions which call the connection with Josiah s reform into question A broadly based study of the themes of time and place in Deuteronomy calling into question accepted ideas about the purpose and setting of the book

The Deuteronomic School Raymond F. Person, 2002 Deuteronomic Theology and the Significance of Torah Peter T. Vogt, 2006-06-30 One of the few areas of consensus in modern Deuteronomy scholarship is the contention that within the book of Deuteronomy there is a program of reform that was nothing short of revolutionary Although there are divergent views regarding the specific details of this revolutionary program most scholars agree that in fundamental and profound ways Deuteronomy was radical in its vision This vision was expressed in key ideas centralization of worship secularization and demythologization of earlier traditions However Vogt argues that these ideas fail to account adequately for the data of the text of Deuteronomy itself Instead he claims at the heart of Deuteronomic theology is the principle of the supremacy of Yahweh which is to be acknowledged by all generations of Israelites through adherence to Torah Thus the book of Deuteronomy is in fact radical and countercultural but not in the ways that are usually adduced It is radical in its rejection of ANE models of kingship and institutional permanence in its emphasis on the holiness of life lived out before Yahweh and in its elevation of Yahweh and his Torah In the introductory chapter the structure and ideology of the book are examined

Chapter 1 then examines some of the ways in which the theology of Deuteronomy has been understood namely in terms of centralization secularization and demythologization Chapters 2-5 evaluate key texts that are used to support the idea that centralization secularization and demythologization are at the heart of the theology of Deuteronomy An alternative reading of the texts is presented that highlights the supremacy of Yahweh and Torah The final chapter investigates the theological and ideological implications of this alternative reading of key texts

Deuteronomy 1-11 Moshe Weinfeld, 1991 Renowned Israeli biblical scholar Moshe Weinfeld delivers a groundbreaking new translation and commentary on one of the most important books in all of Hebrew Scripture Contained within the covers of this one volume is the basis for the Judeo Christian philosophy of life the bedrock of Western civilization

Selected Studies in the Slavonic Pseudepigrapha Andrei Orlov, 2009-10-23 This volume is a study of two of the most important Slavonic apocalypses the Apocalypse of Abraham and 2 Enoch as crucial conceptual links between the symbolic universes of Second Temple apocalypticism and early Jewish mysticism The study seeks to understand the mediating role of these Slavonic pseudepigraphical texts in the development of Jewish angelological and theophanic traditions from Second Temple apocalypticism to later Jewish Merkabah mysticism attested in the Hekhalot and Shi'ur Qomah materials The study shows that mediatorial traditions of the principal angels and the exalted patriarchs and prophets played an important role in facilitating the transition from apocalypticism to early Jewish mysticism

The Deuteronomistic History and the Name Theology Sandra L. Richter, 2014-05-14 This monograph is a comparative socio-linguistic reassessment of the Deuteronomistic idiom leshakken shemo sham and its synonymous biblical reflexes in the Deuteronomistic History lashum shemo sham and lihyot shemo sham These particular formulae have long been understood as evidence of the Name Theology the evolution in Israelite religion toward a more abstracted mode of divine presence in the temple Utilizing epigraphic material gathered from Mesopotamian and Levantine contexts this study demonstrates that leshakken shemo sham and lashum shemo sham are loan adaptations of Akkadian shuma shakanu an idiom common to the royal monumental tradition of Mesopotamia The resulting retranslation and reinterpretation of the biblical idiom profoundly impacts the classic formulation of the Name Theology

The Authors of the Deuteronomistic History Brian Neil Peterson, 2014 Peterson engages the identities and provenances of the authors of the various editions of the Deuteronomistic History Peterson asks where we might locate a figure with both motive and opportunity to draw up a proto-narrative including elements of Joshua Judges Samuel and the first part of 1 Kings Peterson identifies a particular candidate in the time of David qualified to write the first edition He then identifies the particular circle of custodians of the Deuteronomistic narrative and supplies successive redactions down to the time of Jeremiah

The Deuteronomist's History Hans Ausloos, 2015-10-14 In The Deuteronomist's History Hans Ausloos provides for the first time a detailed status quaestionis concerning the relationship between the books Genesis Numbers and the so-called Deuteronomistic literature After a presentation of the origins of the 18th and 19th century hypothesis of a Deuteronomistic redaction specific attention is paid to the argumentation used during the last century Particular interest also is paid to the concept of the proto Deuteronomist and the mostly tentative approaches of the Deuteronomist ic redaction of the Pentateuch during the last decades The book concludes with a critical review and preview of the Deuteronomist ic problem Each phase in the Deuteronomist s history is illustrated on the basis of the epilogue of the Book of the Covenant Exod 23 20 33
