Dayton Oh Postcard History Series:

Dayton Curt Dalton, 2006-08-28 The rise and near destruction of Dayton in the early 20th century is chronicled in this visual postcard history The postcards showcase some of the city's unique commercial buildings hotels churches and residences many now long gone due to urban renewal and highway construction in the 1960s and 1970s Landmarks featured include the National Soldiers Home built for veterans of the Civil War in 1868 and there is an entire chapter dedicated to the events of the 1913 flood that forever changed the face of the city Over 200 postcard images were selected from the Dayton Metro Library and a number of privately held collections Grandeur and Grace in the Ohio Country; Building America from the Ground Up, 1784-1860 William E. Firestone,

On and Around the Cincinnati Arch and Niagara Escarpment

Geological Society of America. North-Central Section. Meeting, 2012-01-01 This volume produced in conjunction with the GSA North Central Section Meeting held in Dayton Ohio April 2012 has a mix of papers ranging from stratigraphy paleontology and hydrogeology to geomorphology drainage basins and building stones The geographic spread of the chapters focuses mainly on an area bounded by those counties adjacent to Montgomery County but also extends beyond from Paulding County in the north to Georgetown Kentucky in the south Topics include the Silurian stratigraphy of southwestern Ohio drainage basins of the Mad River and Little Miami River the relationship between geology and groundwater of the Inner Bluegrass Region Kentucky and its connection to the distilling and aging of bourbon and the building stones of Dayton as well as an introduction to the geology of the Dayton area Along Ohio's Historic Route 20 Michael J. Till, 2013-09-09 Route 20 was named a federal highway in 1926 and for the first half of the 20th century it was the most important east west road across northern Ohio Extending from the Pennsylvania border east of Conneaut to its western terminus with Indiana it made Ohio the connecting link between Northeastern and Midwestern states Fortunately Route 20 has remained virtually intact and can be traveled much as people did in years past Postcard History Series Along Ohio's Historic Route 20 celebrates such a trip illustrated by more than 200 vintage postcards depicting views along the way Town and city scenes rural vistas and historic sites that drew early motorists to the highway are featured Not to be forgotten are the tourist courts hotels diners and gas stations that made automobile journeys possible Dancing in Paradise, Burning in Hell Trudy Irene

Scee, 2016-05-01 An often overlooked segment of Maine and American history is the story of women in the working class dance industries Generally looked upon with a gasp of shock burlesque and vaudeville dancing and later taxi dancing and marathon dancing were often the only way for women to survive In taxi dancing men paid women by the dance while marathon dancing was a contest and women tried to outlast each other on the dance floor In turn of the 20th century Maine this new form of dancing was taking off as it was elsewhere in the country Historian Trudy Irene Scee explores the dance industries of Maine how they were effected by national events and how events in Maine effected national trends She explores the difficulties women faced at that time and how they turned to new forms of entertainment to make money and pay for food and shelter The focus of the book centers on the 1910s through the 1970s but extends back into the 1800s largely exploring the dance halls of the nineteenth century be they saloons with hurdy gurdy girls and the like or dance halls with women performing the early forms of taxi and belly dancing and includes a chapter on belly dancing and other forms of dance entertainment in Maine in the 1980s to early 2000s The newest form of dance striptease dancing is not be examined specifically but is discussed as it pertains to the other dance forms The book forms a unique look at one segment of Maine history and is a terrific addition to the literature on women s issues Dayton Curt Dalton,2006 The rise and near destruction of Dayton in the early 20th century is chronicled in this visual postcard history The postcards showcase some of the city s unique commercial buildings hotels churches and residences many now long gone due to urban renewal and highway construction in the 1960s and 1970s Landmarks featured include the National Soldiers Home built for veterans of the Civil War in 1868 and there is an entire chapter dedicated to the events of the 1913 flood that forever changed the face of the city Over 200 postcard images were selected from the Dayton Metro Library and a number of privately held collections Catalog of Copyright Entries.
