History of Art Wilhelm Lübke,1869 The Art of Listening in the Early Church Carol Harrison,2013-07-04 The sense of hearing was particularly important in the ancient world when the majority of people were illiterate Rhetoric has been given attention in this context but listening has been virtually ignored This book deals with the practical and theological issues which listening to an incorporeal unknowable God raised for early Christians The History of Art History Udo Kultermann,1993 Embracing the Darkness John Callow,2017-10-30 As dusk fell on a misty evening in 1521 Martin Luther hiding from his enemies at Wartburg Castle found himself seemingly tormented by demons hurling walnuts at his bedroom window In a fit of rage the great reformer threw at the Devil the inkwell from which he was preparing his colossal translation of the Bible A belief like Luther s in the supernatural and in black magic has been central to European cultural life for 3000 years From the Salem witch trials to the macabre novels of Dennis Wheatley from the sadistic persecution of eccentric village women to the seductive sorceresses of TV s Charmed and from Derek Jarman s punk film Jubilee to Ken Russell s The Devils John Callow brings the twilight world of the witch mage and necromancer to vivid and fascinating life He takes us into a shadowy landscape where in an age before modern drugs the onset of sudden illness was readily explained by malevolent spellcasting And where dark winding country lanes could terrify by night as the hoot of an owl or shriek of a fox became the desolate cries of unseen spirits Witchcraft has profoundly shaped the western imagination and endures in the forms of modern day Wicca and paganism Embracing the Darkness is an enthralling account of this fascinating aspect of the western cultural experience Dazzled by Darkness Erica Miles,2012-08-30 A young Jewish intellectual who hears voices and her Latino artist admirer who hallucinates conversations with the likes of Leonardo da Vinci and Picasso begin a relationship that draws both of them into the world and takes the reader on a fun ride through 1960 s New York and beyond materialism such as G Bachelard and M Merleau Ponty G Bataille J Kristeva P Lacoue Labarthe and J Sallis G Didi Huberman H Belting and A Warburg J Bennett and Jason M Wirth as well as performance studies Chapters in this volume inquire into the imaginative forces that disrupt and disinherit the traditional habits of imagination to create pulsatile imaginaries i e a dynamic process of emergence resurgence of image manifested in the act of creation and in perception This process does not properly imply a destruction of image but rather a withdrawal of image from the realm of representation to give way to new images and new imaginative experiences The newly coined term rite of disimagination points out to this operation consecutively implying imagining and disimaging that both denies as well as validates image it valorizes matter The affirmation of the materiality of image is the re incarnation of image The Academy ,1909 Hymn and Tune Book ,1871
