Glitter Gabe (English Edition) Alex C. Clarke, 2016-12-19 Two lonely souls who grew apart are trying to make their lost love shine again Gabriel and Xabi first met when they were teenagers Gabe was already openly gay whereas Xabi doubted he'd ever come out Life isn't always simple at such a troubled age especially when you have a strong personality Ten years after their first encounter life offers them a second chance Will Xabi manage to make his Glitter Gabe shine again Will Gabriel give Xabi the opportunity to prove he's changed Discover their love story through the landscapes of the Basque countryside and Paris

The Old French Lays of Ignaure, Oiselet and Amours Glyn Sheridan Burgess, Leslie C. Brook, 2010 New editions with translations and introductions The three narrative lays presented here form a sequel to the authors French Arthurian Literature IV Eleven Old French Narrative Lays published in 2007 No new edition of Ignaure has appeared since 1938 and in the meantime this poem has generated a considerable amount of critical comment especially as it provides the first full length example in medieval European literature of the theme of the Eaten Heart Oiselet recounts a bird's use of three truths as a means of escaping from the clutches of an uncultivated villain In the extant manuscripts these truths occur in two different orders both of which are provided in the present edition Amours which follows the progress of a love affair between a nobleman and his beloved has not been edited since 1878 All three poems challenge our understanding of the term lay especially if we regard the lays of Marie de France as defining the principal features of this genre GLYN S BURGESS is Emeritus Professor of French at the University of Liverpool LESLIE C BROOK is Honorary Senior Research Fellow in French at the University of Birmingham

From France With Love Mary Harrod, 2015-05-21 Love stories have always been at the heart of French cinema but romantic comedies have until recently been absent from it In 2001 the global success of Amelie catalysed a major development in the Western world's second largest film industry the appropriation of the Hollywood romantic comedy genre or Rom Com à l'Américaine In From France with Love Mary Harrod explores this contemporary phenomenon examining both local hits and films with international status Using socio cultural data box office figures and analysis of critical reception she reveals the ways in which these films mirror shifting attitudes towards gender roles within French society as well as the increasingly important interrelation between French national cinema and transnational filmmaking paradigms

France and the Cult of the Sacred Heart Raymond Jonas, 2000-09-20 In a richly layered and beautifully illustrated narrative Raymond Jonas tells the fascinating and surprisingly little known story of the Sacr Coeur or Sacred Heart The highest point in Paris and a celebrated tourist destination the white domed basilica of Sacr Coeur on Montmartre is a key monument both to French Catholicism and to French national identity Jonas masterfully reconstructs the history of the devotion responsible for the basilica beginning with the apparition of the Sacred Heart to Marguerite Marie Alacoque in the seventeenth century through the French Revolution and its aftermath to the construction of the monumental church that has loomed over Paris since the end of the nineteenth century Jonas focuses on key moments in the development of the cult the founding apparition its invocation during the plague of Marseilles its adaptation as a royalist symbol during the French Revolution and its elevation to a central position in Catholic devotional and political life in the crisis surrounding the Franco Prussian War He draws on a wealth of archival sources to produce a learned yet accessible narrative that encompasses a remarkable sweep of French politics history architecture and art The American Hebrew ,1923
