Church Making Apophatic Ecclesiology Consubstantiality:

Church in the Making Nikolaos Loudovikos, 2015 Over the past fifty years Orthodox theologies of ecclesiology have been revolving around competing schools of ecclesiology one universal the other eucharistic Father Loudovikos in this masterful interconnected series of studies moves beyond this dialectic by exploring the very mode of the Church's existence In the end it is the profound theological insights of St Maximus the Confessor that propel Father Loudovikos beyond the familiar borders of ecclesiology and into a new way of understanding the Church's self that is indissolubly linked to the human person and his participation in the divine Love that is God The Church in the Public Ilse Ahn, 2022-08-09 How should the church relate to the public sphere The body politic The state The economic order The natural world For too many Christians and churches being in the world but not of it has resulted in either a theocratic impulse to seize the reins of secular power or a quietistic retreat from the world and its material concerns The Church in the Public shows how this dualism has corrupted the church's social witness and allowed neoliberal and neocolonial ideas to assert control of public and political life Dualism has rendered the church not only indifferent to but also complicitous with the state's bio and power politics Because of this outdated framework of the church's political theology the church has been reluctant to engage in challenging structural and systemic injustice in this world But rather than counseling despair or making a case for Christendom Ilse Ahn argues for a public church one that collaborates and cooperates with other public actors and entities in the promotion of a just social order The book traces this third way back to the apostolic age and offers practical approaches for enacting it today Central to this vision is the analogy of the rhizome that strange unique form of life that lives underground grows horizontally and is capable of regeneration The Church in the Public draws on this image to develop a political theology for engaging the world identifying with the oppressed and binding up the broken Deification and Modern Orthodox Theology Petre Maican, 2023-04-24 Modern Orthodox identity is deeply interwoven with the notion of deification or union with God For some theologians deification represents the lens through which most if not all theological questions should be engaged In this volume Petre Maican undertakes the task of critically examining the extent to which deification informs the main debates inside Orthodox theology focusing on four essential loci anthropology the Trinity epistemology and ecclesiology Maican argues that while deification remains central to anthropology and the Orthodox understanding of the Trinity it seems less relevant in the areas of ecclesiology and complexifies the Orthodox approach to Scripture and Tradition Analogia Maximos Constas, Nikolaos Loudovikos, David Bradshaw, Marcus Plested, and Christos Lydia Petridou Terezis, Miroslav Griško, 2022-03-04 Analogia is a peer reviewed academic journal dedicated to the scholarly exposition and discussion of the theological principles of the Christian faith A distinguishing feature of this journal will be the effort to advance a dialogue between Orthodox Christianity and the views and concerns of Western modes of theological and philosophical thought A key secondary objective is to provide a scholarly context for the further examination and study of common Christian sources Though theological and philosophical topics of interest are the primary focus of the journal the content of Analogia will not be restricted to material that originates exclusively from these disciplines Insofar as the journal seeks to cultivate theological discourse and engagement with the urgent challenges and questions posed by modernity topics from an array of disciplines will also be considered including the natural and social sciences As such solicited and unsolicited submissions of high academic quality containing topics of either a theological or interdisciplinary nature will be encouraged In an effort to facilitate dialogue provision will be made for peer reviewed critical responses to articles that deal with high interest topics Analogia strives to provide an interdisciplinary forum wherein Christian theology is further explored and assumes the role of an interlocutor with the multiplicity of difficulties facing modern humanity Gregory Palamas and the Making of Palamism in the Modern Age Norman Russell, 2019-03-21 The fourteenth century Greek hesychast and controversialist Gregory Palamas has been so successfully cast as the other in Western theological discourse that it can be difficult to gain a sympathetic hearing for him In the first part of this book Norman Russell traces the historical reception of Palamite thought in Orthodoxy and in the West and investigates how Palamism was constructed in the early twentieth century by both Western and Eastern theologians principally Martin Jugie and John Meyendorff for polemical or apologetic purposes Russell argues that we need to go behind these ideological constructions in order to gain a true perception of the teaching of Gregory Palamas In his recent survey of Palamite scholarship Robert Sinkewicz noted that it is now time to raise the larger questions The second part of the book attempts to do this following the contours of Palamas thinking in three areas his relationship to tradition his philosophy and his theology Russell shows that Palamite thought when freed of misunderstanding and misrepresentation has the potential to enrich our understanding of divine human communion This study contributes to the changing paradigm of scholarship on Palamas nudging it towards the point at which Palamite thought can be used fruitfully by contemporary Western and Eastern theologians without the need to subscribe to what has been regarded as Palamism Energy in Orthodox Theology and Physics Stoyan Tanev, 2017-08-29 It is well known that energy is a fundamental concept in physics Much less well known is that it is also a key concept in Eastern Christian or Orthodox theology This book from Dr Stoyan Tanev a physicist innovation management scholar and theologian provides a comparative analysis of the conceptualizations of energy in Orthodox theology and in physics and demonstrates the potential of such comparison for a better understanding of these two quite different domains of human enquiry The book explores the rediscovery of the Byzantine Church's teaching on the Divine energies in twentieth century Orthodox theology and offers new insights about the key contributions of key theologians such as Sergius Bulgakov George Florovsky John Meyendorff Christos Yannaras and Thomas Torrance Where do the understandings of energy in theology and physics meet The author argues that the encounter between theology and physics happens at the level of quantum physics where the subtle use of words and language acquires a distinctive apophatic dimension His comparative approach focuses on the epistemological struggles of theologians and physicists According to Tanev this focus on the struggles of knowing offers a new way to look at the dialogue between science and theology

The Holy Spirit and the Church John McClean, 2025-10-10 The 2023 Edinburgh Dogmatics Conference focused on the theme of The Holy Spirit and the Church It is tempting to observe that these are both unusual topics for a conference in the Reformed theological tradition In recent generations Reformed theology has a reputation of ignoring both That is not true of the deeper tradition of Reformed theology which has had a robust account of the work of the Spirit and high ecclesiology The papers at the conference returned to those themes recovering some of the riches of older theology and also exploring the challenges and implications for the faith in the twenty first century Each chapter was given as a paper at the conference They retain something of the directness of papers that were read to an audience

Modern Orthodox Theology Paul Ladouceur, 2019-02-21 Modern Orthodox theology represents a continuity of the Eastern Christian theological tradition stretching back to the early Church and especially to the Ancient Fathers of the Church This volume considers the full range of modern Orthodox theology The first chapters of the book offer a chronological study of the development of modern Orthodox theology beginning with a survey of Orthodox theology from the fall of Constantinople in 1453 until the early 19th century Ladouceur then focuses on theology in imperial Russia the Russian religious renaissance at the beginning of the 20th century and the origins and nature of neopatristic theology as well as the new theology in Greece and Romania and tradition and the restoration of patristic thought Subsequent chapters examine specific major themes God and Creation Divine humanity personhood and human rights The Church of Christ Ecumenical theology and religious diversity The Christification of life Social and Political Theology The Name of God conflict The ordination of women The volume concludes with assessments of major approaches of modern Orthodox theology and reflections on the current status and future of Orthodox theology Designed for classroom use the book features case studies a detailed index a list of recommended readings for each chapter

Analogia Christos Karakolis, Andreas Andreopoulos, Nikolaos Loudovikos, Andrew T.J. Kaethler, Jared Schumacher, Anna Zhyrkova, Norm Klassen, Marcin Podbielski, Johannes Börjesson, John Milbank, Marcello La Matina, 2022-03-04 The beginning of the Roman Catholic Orthodox Theological dialogue during the 20th century raised to some high hopes for an imminent canonical unity between the two Denominations and this though premature is not of course to be blamed it is impossible for any contemporary Christian theologian not to suffer from the division within this very womb of the ontological unification of all things which is the Church of Christ precisely because this division gives to many the impression of a fragmentation of the Church's very being and subsequently weakens her witness
