By David Harvey A Brief History Of Neoliberalism 1st First Edition:

Necropolitics Christophe D. Ringer, 2020-11-17 Necropolitics The Religious Crisis of Mass Incarceration in America explores the pernicious and persistent presence of mass incarceration in American public life Christophe D Ringer argues that mass incarceration persists largely because the othering and criminalization of Black people in times of crisis is a significant part of the religious meaning of America This book traces representations from the Puritan era to the beginning of the War on Drugs in the 1980s to demonstrate their centrality in this issue revealing how these images have become accepted as fact and used by various aspects of governance to wield the power to punish indiscriminately Ringer demonstrates how these vilifying images contribute to racism and political economy creating a politics of death that uses jails and prisons to conceal social inequalities and political exclusion

The Insecure American Hugh Gusterson, Catherine Besteman, 2009-11-24 Americans are feeling insecure They are retreating to gated communities in record numbers fearing for their jobs and their 401 k s nervous about their health insurance and their debt levels worrying about terrorist attacks and immigrants In this innovative volume editors Hugh Gusterson and Catherine Besteman gather essays from nineteen leading ethnographers to create a unique portrait of an anxious country and to furnish valuable insights into the nation s possible future With an incisive foreword by Barbara Ehrenreich the contributors draw on their deep knowledge of different facets of American life to map the impact of the new economy the war on terror the war on drugs racial resentments a fraying safety net undocumented immigration a health care system in crisis and much more In laying out a range of views on the forces that unsettle us The Insecure American demonstrates the singular power of an anthropological perspective for grasping the impact of corporate profit on democratic life charting the links between policy and vulnerability and envisioning alternatives to life as an insecure American

Taking Back Desire: A Psychoanalytic Approach to Queerness and Neoliberalism on Screen James Lawrence Slattery, 2025-05-13 Taking Back Desire studies film television and video art texts through a Lacanian prism to restore a sense of queer as troubling identity and resistance to neoliberal forms of inclusion James Lawrence Slattery illuminates how the framing of desire identity enjoyment resistance and knowledge contribute to the investment in neoliberal formations of being and success despite the corrosive effects neoliberalism has had for much of society The book does not read queerness on screen as a discernible group of characters or narrative formulas but as a point that meaning fails in the visual and temporal field Examining the interrelation of the real the imaginary and the symbolic in contemporary politics and contemporary media Slattery investigates how a diverse selection of moving image texts forge queerness as a relationship to the lack while crucially resisting the creation of a new or definitive canon Taking Back Desire will be essential reading for academics and scholars of Freudian and Lacanian psychoanalysis queer theory late capitalism film television and media studies sexuality studies critical race theory cultural studies and feminist theory

Italian Dumplings and Chinese Pizzas Gaoheng Zhang, 2025-10-07 Designs a novel analytical framework to approach

transcultural food mobilities a culinary phenomenon that has been with us for decades as a result of colonialism and globalization Why is it surprising for some of us to read the pairing of Chinese with pizzas and Italian with dumplings such as proposed in the book's title After all in some regions of the two countries Italians eat frequently dumplings and Chinese frequently make baked steamed or fried flatbread with toppings or fillings Furthermore when dumplings are made in Italy by Chinese migrants or Chinese Italians or when pizzas are made in China by Italian migrants Chinese Italians or Chinese without apparent ties with Italy are these culinary products Chinese Italian Chinese Italian or something else Why do we need to care for such labeling dilemmas This book shows how China Italy food mobilities relayed in popular culture helped forge Chinese and Italians socioeconomic identities in recent decades by fundamentally shaping contemporary Chinese and Italian consumer cultures This book addresses China Italy food cultures against the backdrops of two epoch making socioeconomic processes During the 1980s Chinese cuisine became the first non European food widely available in Italy thanks to the widespread presence of Chinese eateries Only American fast food which established itself in Italy around the same time enjoyed comparable popularity as a destination for Italian culinary tourism Meanwhile in the early 1990s together with American hamburgers and fried chicken the American food chain Pizza Hut's pizzas and spaghetti were the first non Asian foods that post Mao Chinese customers recognized as Western The book proposes a critical framework that analyzes transcultural food mobilities by seriously assessing the confluence of diverse mobilities and their impact on food cultures Ultimately the study shows that a sophisticated interpretation of transcultural food mobilities can help address alterity and build understanding in a world of increasing political and cultural polarization

The Evolution of China's Political Economy Rich Marino, 2023-05-01 For years China's rapid economic transformation was hailed as a successful project that lifted hundreds of millions of people out of poverty. However, in recent times the Chinese narrative has taken a more negative turn in the eyes of the West. Much of this has to do with the US perception about the role of the Chinese state in its economy and its military build up, especially in the South China Sea. There's no question China's complex economy can be difficult to understand. Information is often unclear and incomplete, and its data are not always reliable. However, this book presents the reader with a clear picture of China's economy and how it compares to other advanced economies, mainly the United States. The book unwraps the key features and structures of China's economy. Moreover, it examines and shows the similarities and differences in comparison with other like economies. In that effort, it underscores the differences by evaluating their benefits as well as their disadvantages against the backdrop of China's incomplete transition to a market economy. This, along with its governance structure, becomes the crucial components shaping the way key stakeholders will act and react to opportunities and incentives as that economy evolves. The book supplements the definition of globalization for the academic, the student, the professional, and anyone else interested in its positive and negative effects. It is also a good fit for anyone who wants to understand China's three elements of political economy: global trade, political power, and its image on the global stage.

Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury, 2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization? What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World, Social Forum, and alternative economies? Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists. It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization. El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution, not just contestation of global and local processes. The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North. These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning. This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies. It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations, globalization, social movement studies, political and economic geography, sociology, anthropology, and development studies.

Inventing the Silent Majority in Western Europe and the United States Anna von der Goltz, Britta Waldschmidt-Nelson, 2019-03-28 For historians of social movements, this text explores 1960s and 1970s conservative political activism in the US and Western Europe.

Dilemmas of Educational Ethics Meira Levinson, Jacob Fay, 2019-01-02 Educators and policy makers confront challenging questions of ethics justice and equity on a regular basis Should teachers retain a struggling student if it means she will most certainly drop out Should an assignment plan favor middle class families if it means strengthening the school system for all These everyday dilemmas are both utterly ordinary and immensely challenging yet there are few opportunities and resources to help educators think through the ethical issues at stake Drawing on research and methods developed in the Justice in Schools project at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Dilemmas of Educational Ethics introduces a new interdisciplinary approach to achieving practical wisdom in education one that honors the complexities inherent in educational decision making and encourages open discussion of the values and principles we should collectively be trying to realize in educational policy and practice At the heart of the book are six richly described realistic accounts of ethical dilemmas that have arisen in education in recent years paired with responses written by noted philosophers empirical researchers policy makers and practitioners including Pedro Noguera Howard Gardner Mary Pattillo Andres A Alonso Jamie Ahlberg Toby N Romer and Michael J Petrilli The editors illustrate how readers can use and adapt these cases and commentaries in schools and other settings in order to reach a difficult decision deepen their own understanding or to build teams around shared values

Animals, Justice, and the Politics of Violence Sezai Ozan Zeybek, 2025-09-26 This book explores the intricate relationship between humans and animals in the context of modern Turkish history From drafted animals in war to urban stray dogs and the role of cattle in the Kurdish conflict the cases developed in this book show how animal lives are deeply entangled with human affairs including complex social organisations such as families states and nations In doing so the book exposes power dynamics exploitative practices and the discursive regimes that underpin development nationalism and urban growth This important book offers a timely exploration of human animal relations critically revising a number of concepts such as human rights productivity health and efficiency from a multispecies perspective
