

In order for me to be friends with anyone going to be a deep, true friendship, I have to love the writer and her work. When you love the writing, the friendship never really ends. If you love the writing and not the person, you can't be friends with someone you don't like.

So when I say Elizabeth McCracken is my friend and favorite writer, I can assure you things are inseparable. We've been reading each other's work page by page, draft by draft, for many years. I feel like Elizabeth and I grew up together as writers, and all these years later her work

Thunderstruck is the collection of short stories (like me) have long been waiting for. If you've read her collection of short stories, How's Your Heart, or her novels, The Giant's House or Our Again, or her nonfiction An Exact Copy of My Imagination, this book lives up to all you haven't read Elizabeth before. This is a perfect introduction to one of our most original authors, who, coincidentally, has been my best friend.

Enjoy!
