The

Paralympic Movement and the Paralympic Games Ian Brittain, 2024 The Paralympic Games are a major international sports competition for athletes with a variety of impairments physical sensory and intellectual held in conjunction with the Olympic Summer and Winter Games usually beginning about two weeks after the Olympic closing ceremony This article outlines the origins of the Paralympic Games how they developed who gets to participate and how they ensure fair competition given the differences in the type and severity of the impairments of the athletes who participate It will then highlight some of the historical connections between the Olympic and Paralympic movements how these connections have developed over time and the impact this has had on the two movements

The Paralympic Games as a Force for Peaceful Coexistence Ian Brittain, 2016 The International Olympic Committee advocates that one of the three ultimate goals of Olympism is to build a peaceful and better world through sport The International Paralympic Committee on the other hand is slightly less grandiose when stating its key aim of enabling Paralympic athletes to achieve sporting excellence and to inspire and excite the world However it does state that in inspiring and exciting the world its aim is to contribute to a better world for all people with a disability The objective of this paper is therefore firstly to outline some of the reasons why the world might need to be made better for people with disabilities It will then look at some of the ways the Paralympic Games have contributed to this process since their inception as the Stoke Mandeville Games in the late 1940s Overall the objective of this paper is to highlight the ways in which disability sport and the Paralympic Games in particular have helped to break down some of the perceptual barriers that exist amongst non disabled members of society regarding people with disabilities thus promoting greater inclusion of people with disabilities and allowing them to live in more peaceful coexistence with their peers

From Stoke Mandeville to Sochi Ian Brittain, 2014-03 History and Development of the Paralympic Games. Issues within the Paralympic Movement, 2021-03-18 Seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject Sport Disabled Sports grade 1.7 Munich University of Applied Sciences language English abstract This paper deals with the history and development of the Paralympic Games from their small beginnings as a competition for disabled ex servicemen and women in England founded shortly after the Second World War to the present international festival of Summer and Winter Games organized in conjunction with the Olympic Games Furthermore the development of the term Paralympic will be explained and some major issues within the Paralympic Movement will to be shown The Paralympic Games are a modern day sporting phenomenon that has grown from a small archery demonstration event many years ago to the second largest multi sport festival on the planet after the Olympic Games These Games for athletes with disabilities have played a major role in changing attitudes towards disability and accelerating the agenda for inclusion The Games trace their origins to the work of Dr Ludwig Guttman at the National Spinal Injuries Unit at Stoke Mandeville Hospital in Buckinghamshire who used sport as an integral part of the treatment of paraplegic patients The first competition for wheelchair athletes named the Stoke Mandeville Games was organized by him on the day of the Opening Ceremony of the London Olympic Games in 1948 These Games later became the

Paralympic Games which first took place in Italy in 1960 The Paralympic Games are the Olympic Games for athletes with disabilities and are nowadays organized by the International Paralympic Committee IPC In the beginning only paraplegic athletes were allowed to participate but this has changed in the past years Blind visually impaired amputees and athletes with other disabilities are also allowed to participate in the games To be able to evaluate the athletes fairly they are divided into so called damage classes
