Mrs. Brown figured that billboard would work a lot better than 8"x11" piece of paper on telephone pole. There was empty billboard at end of her street just off interstate highway. billboard had phone number on it. She called that number, and they told her they could blow up picture of Clyde (from Mrs. Brown's family album) and put it on billboard for all to see.

"But how can people see it when they whiz by on interstate?" she asked. "Oh, don't worry, ma'am, they only whiz by between 2 a.m. and 5:30 a.m. rest of day, interstate is so full of commuters that no one moves." They told her it would cost only $3,000 a month. So she took most of money out of her savings account and rented billboard for a month.

More than month has passed, but Clyde has not appeared. Because she has almost no money in savings, Mrs. Brown called local newspaper to see if anyone could help her rent billboard for just one more month. She is waiting but, so far, no one has stepped forward.
