Dialogue With Trypho Selections From The Fathers Of The Church:

Dialogue with Trypho (Selections from the Fathers of the Church, Volume 3) Saint Justin Martyr, 2003 Originally published fifty years ago this is a revised edition of Thomas Falls translation of Justin Martyr's Dialogue Written during the 1st century AD it comprises one of the earliest conversion accounts in Christianity in which Justin recounts his conversion from Judaism to a Hellenised Jew

Dialogue with Trypho Justin Justin Martyr, 2018-04-19 The Dialogue with Trypho along with the First and Second Apologies is a second century Christian apologetic text documenting the attempts by theologian Justin Martyr to show that Christianity is the new law for all men and to prove from Scripture that Jesus is the Jewish Messiah The Dialogue utilizes the literary device of an intellectual conversation between Justin and Trypho a Jew The concluding section propounds that the Christians are the true people of God

The Septuagint and Messianism Michael Anthony Knibb, 2006 The question of the extent to which the Septuagint reflects an evolution in messianic belief in comparison with the Masoretic Text has come into prominence in recent years and in view of the role played by messianism in Jewish belief of the late Second Temple period and in early Christianity it seemed very appropriate that The Septuagint and Messianism should be chosen as the theme of the 2004 Colloquium Biblicum Lovaniense This volume contains the papers given at the Colloquium which are concerned both with methodological issues and with the interpretation of specific texts in practice the majority of the texts in the Septuagint for which a messianic interpretation has been claimed The papers are very far from all reflecting the same approach and it has frequently happened that the same texts have been treated by different contributors from very different viewpoints But the fact such different viewpoints are expressed is a proper reflection of the complexity of the issues involved in the question of the extent of messianic belief in the Septuagint and of the fact that the question requires a nuanced answer It is in any case hoped that the varied approaches reflected in the papers will serve to make clear the underlying reasons for the differences between those who take a minimalist and those who take a maximalist view on the subject of the Septuagint and Messianism

The Oxford Handbook of the Trinity Gilles Emery, Matthew Levering, 2011-10-27 This Handbook surveys the complex history of Trinitarian theology and reveals the Nicene unity still at work among Christians today despite ecumenical differences Forty five contributors examine doctrinal developments and variations from biblical times to the present day

Classical Trinitarian Theology Tarmo Toom, 2007-11-15 Classical Trinitarian Theology for Seminary Students is a textbook on patristic Trinitarian doctrines Part I introduces classical Trinitarian theology with the help of short discussion definitions and comparisons It is designed for incoming seminary students who have never formally studied theology Part II is for intermediate students It comments on three charts which attempt to depict graphically the patristic search for Christian Trinitarian theology This section is geared towards seminary students who have already studied for a few years and would like to revisit the classical doctrine of the Trinity at a more advanced level but who are not really ready for engaging primary texts independently whether in Greek

Latin or English Part III is composed for advanced students who enjoy tackling primary texts It provides a list of some important Greek or Latin primary texts and the accessible translations in English

Ham's Sin and Noah's Curse and BLESSING UTTERANCES Nicholas Oyugi Odhiambo,2014-09-24 The thesis of this book is threefold First contrary to the increasingly popular understanding that the nature of Ham s offense was sexual we argue that this offense was nonsexual despite the presence of the phrase to see the nakedness of in Genesis 9 22 More specifically Ham s offense had less to do with seeing his father naked the seeing was accidental Rather his fault lay with his choice to disclose to his brothers what he had seen as opposed to covering the nakedness of his father Second the most probable fulfillment of the Noah s curse is 1 the servitude of the Gibeonites 2 the enslavement of the Canaanites following the conquest or 3 the dominance of Rome and Greece over Tyre and Carthage respectively the events or phenomena least associated with the curse in our view are the following 1 the service of the four kings in Genesis 14 under Chedorlaomer and the king of Tidal 2 the subjection of the Egyptians and Babylonians by the Persians 3 the forced corv e service of the Egyptians by Pharaoh 4 the triumph of Israel over Egypt during the Exodus 5 the enslavement of the Africans and 6 the African s dark skin color Third whereas none of the proposals offered in regards to the phrase let him dwell in the tents of Shem correlate well with the exegesis of the blessing utterance we did find a viable candidate among the proposals related to the enlargement of Japheth viz geographical expansion

The Christianization of Knowledge in Late Antiquity Mark Letteney,2023-10-12 The Christianization of Knowledge in Late Antiquity Intellectual and Material Transformations traces the beginning of Late Antiquity from a new angle Shifting the focus away from the Christianization of people or the transformation of institutions Mark Letteney interrogates the creation of novel and durable structures of knowledge across the Roman scholarly landscape and the embedding of those changes in manuscript witnesses Letteney explores scholarly productions ranging from juristic writings and legal compendia to theological tractates military handbooks historical accounts miscellanies grammatical treatises and the Palestinian Talmud He demonstrates how imperial Christianity inflected the production of truth far beyond the domain of theology and how intellectual tools forged in the fires of doctrinal controversy shed their theological baggage and came to undergird the great intellectual productions of the Theodosian Age and their material expressions Letteney s volume offers new insights and a new approach to answering the perennial question What does it mean for Rome to become Christian This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Images of Torah: From the Second-Temple Period to the Middle Ages Jeong Mun. Heo,2023-06-26 This book explores the way that the Torah was appreciated and interpreted as a text and symbol in Christian and Jewish sources from the Second Temple period through the Middle Ages It tracks the development and complex interactions of three images of Torah God like Angelic and Messianic which are found in late antique Jewish and Christian materials as well as in medieval kabbalistic and Jewish philosophic sources It provides a unique template for tracing the development of theological ideas related to the images of Torah and offers a sophisticated and innovative analysis of the relationship between mystical experience theology and phenomenology

The Cult of the Mother of God in Byzantium Leslie Brubaker, Mary B. Cunningham, 2016-12-05 This volume on the cult of the Theotokos Virgin Mary in Byzantium focuses on textual and historical aspects of the subject thus complementing previous work which has centred more on the cult of images of the Mother of God The papers presented here by an international team of scholars consider the development and transformation of the cult from approximately the fourth through the twelfth centuries The volume opens with discussion of the origins of the cult and its Near Eastern manifestations including the archaeological site of the Kathisma church in Palestine which represents the earliest Marian shrine in the Holy Land and Syriac poetic treatment of the Virgin The principal focus however is on the 8th and 9th centuries in Byzantium as a critical period when Christian attitudes toward the Virgin and her veneration were transformed The book re-examines the relationship between icons relics and the Virgin asking whether increasing devotion to these holy objects or figures was related in any way Some contributions consider the location of relics and later icons in Constantinople and other centres of Marian devotion others explore gender issues such as the significance of the Virgin's feminine qualities and whether women and men identified with her equally as a holy figure The aim of this volume is to build on recent work on the cult of the Virgin Mary in Byzantium and to explore areas that have not yet been studied The rationale is critical and historical using literary artistic and archaeological sources to evaluate her role in the development of the Byzantine understanding of the ways in which God interacts with creation by means of icons relics and the Theotokos

Imagining the Death of Jesus in Fourth-Century Mesopotamia Blake Hartung, 2023-10-09 In this volume Blake Hartung explores the place of the passion and death of Jesus in the writings of Ephrem of Nisibis ca 307-373 The book argues that the genre of Ephrem's works usually short poems for public performance is key to understanding his unsystematic approach Ephrem drew widely upon the Passion narratives and traditional motifs related to Christ's death and deployed them differently in distinct settings Each chapter explores a key theme in Ephrem's discourse about the death of Christ in context including anti-Judaism the defeat of death and economic imagery Ultimately Hartung urges further consideration of the role of Christ's death in early Christian thought and practice beyond the traditional confines of atonement theology
