Diary Of An Irish Countryman:

The Diary of an Irish Countryman, 1827-1835 Amhlaoibh Ó Súilleabháin, Tomás de Bhaldraithe, 1979 The Diary of an Irish Countryman 1827-1835 Humphrey O'Sullivan, Tomás De Bhaldraithe, 1993 Between 1827 and 1835 Humphrey O'Sullivan kept a diary of his life in Co Kilkenny He was a hedge school master like his father but went on to become a prosperous businessman and philanthropist No aspect of life escaped his attention from the poverty and degradation of the peasantry to the flora and fauna of the region Ireland to America The Last Generation Kathie Wycoff, 2009-03 Names appear here and there recorded for posterity and then the page turns and new names continue to be written The pages fill up are turned and life and generations go on So it is with families They continue to move through the pages of history Some are simply a line recorded to acknowledge a birth or a death while others had significant lives evidenced by volumes of testimony This historical fiction novel depicts the life of Martin Renehan born and raised in Kilkenny Ireland In 1834 he followed his young lady across the Atlantic to America where he settled in Washington D C There he served as usher in the White House for five presidential administrations beginning with Andrew Jackson He lived his life close to the pulse of his adopted land and worked in the Capitol city through the Civil War and the assassination of Abraham Lincoln His Confederate son was captured and placed in the Old Capitol Prison This presented Martin with a new set of problems Many stories have been recorded about the intelligence and wit of this well loved Irishman During his life he was a colorful fixture in the society of Washington D C Sociolinguistics in Ireland R. Hickey, 2016-04-12 Sociolinguistics in Ireland takes a fresh look at the interface of language and society in present day Ireland In a series of specially commissioned chapters it examines the relationship of the Irish and English languages and traces their dynamic development both in history and at present The Garden of Martyrs Michael C. White, 2014-12-23 A Catholic parish is torn apart when two of its members are accused of murder The year 1806 is not a good time to be Catholic in Boston When a man is brutally killed on the Boston Post Road two unsuspecting Irishmen are charged with the crime For five months they rot in prison denied a lawyer until just two days before the hearing It is a mockery of justice a one day trial that results in a unanimous verdict The Irishmen will be hanged dissected and dismembered Comforting them falls to Father Cheverus a French migr struggling to adapt to life in the New World It is his duty to help the condemned find peace but any overture he makes to the prisoners will be met with an anti Catholic backlash that could destroy his fledgling congregation As he walks a fraught path the priest must decide Is his obligation to his flock or to God The Country Cooking of Ireland Colman Andrews, 2012-12-21 The acclaimed food and travel writer brings to life the people countryside and delicious food of Ireland in this James Beard Award winning cookbook Fast emerging as one of the world's hottest culinary destinations Ireland is a country of small farms artisanal bakers cheese makers and butteries Farm to table dining has been practiced here for centuries Meticulously researched and reported by Saveur magazine founder Colman Andrews this sumptuous cookbook includes 250 recipes and more than 100 photographs of the pubs the people and the emerald Irish countryside taken by award winning photographer Christopher Hirsheimer Rich with stories of the food and people who make Ireland a wonderful place to eat and laced with charming snippets of song folklore and poetry The Country Cooking of Ireland ushers in a new understanding of Irish food The Dark Stuff Donald S. Murray, 2018-04-05 An evocative social history of Europe's peatlands moors bogs and heaths Donald S Murray spent much of his childhood either playing or working on the moor chasing sheep across empty acres and cutting and gathering peat for fuel The Dark Stuff is an examination of how this landscape affected him and others Donald explores his early life on the Isle of Lewis together with the experiences of those who lived near moors much further afield from the Highlands and Islands of Scotland to the Netherlands Germany Ireland and even Australia Examining this environment in all its roles and guises Donald reflects on the ways that for centuries humans have represented the moor in literature art and folktale and he reveals how in some countries these habitats remain an essential aspect of their industrial heritage and working life today On his journey Donald confronts the unexpected how Europe's peatlands are part of the dark heart of that continent playing a crucial role in the history of crime and punishment in several countries He also examines our current perception of moorland asking how for the sake perhaps of our planet's survival we can learn to love a landscape we have all too often in our history denigrated feared and despised Begging, Charity and Religion in Pre-Famine Ireland Ciarán McCabe, 2019-01-24 Beggars and begging were ubiquitous features of pre Famine Irish society yet have gone largely unexamined by historians This book explores for the first time the complex cultures of mendicancy as well as how wider societal perceptions of and responses to begging were framed by social class gender and religion CETA's Investment Chapter Kriton Dionysiou, 2021-01-31 This book provides a comprehensive account of the CETA Investment Chapter's ability to overcome the legitimacy crisis facing investment arbitration To do so it first examines the root causes behind the legitimacy crisis ultimately arguing that it reflects a fundamental rule of law crisis within investment arbitration In particular it asserts that the normative standpoints of the legitimacy crisis form part of the rule of law the uniting legal principle from which the legitimacy concerns stem The book contends that the rule of law is not only the principal normative and causal assumption on which the legitimacy concerns are based but that it could also be utilized as a platform to evaluate the investment arbitration mechanism in CETA's Investment Chapter Based on this the book evaluates CETA's Investment Chapter through the rule of law framework in order to provide a convincing account of the latter's ability to overcome the legitimacy crisis facing investment arbitration It concludes that CETA's Investment Chapter is unlikely to completely solve the legitimacy crisis simply because it is just a patchwork of reforms rather than a comprehensive reinvention of the substantive and procedural law of investment arbitration Lastly the book offers meaningful insights into the way the challenges presented by investment arbitration should be addressed The book is intended for academics researching international investment law and arbitration as well as for policy makers focusing on reforming investor state dispute settlement Ireland in Love Anthony

Bluett,1995 This is a collection of Ireland s unusual love traditions It tells readers of how purple orchids were used in coaxing women in Kerry and how white gander droppings were employed to secure the love of a man in Cork
