Crime and Power Pamela Davies,Tanya Wyatt,2020-11-13 This textbook makes a concerted effort to expose crimes committed by those wielding unfettered personal power and crimes by corporations business and states crimes against human and non human species and the environment It examines an increasingly complex interplay of issues which surely should be at the heart of any criminology programme This text adopts a fresh and innovative approach to exposing the crimes of the powerful situating and understanding crimes and victimisations as it does within a framework where questions of structural and personal power in society are key Fourteen case studies are threaded throughout the book and this methodology is used as a teaching resource for studying and uncovering the crimes of the powerful The first three chapters comprehensively contextualise the problems of crime and power and establish the importance of power to understanding crime and victimisation in society The chapters within Part I and Part II of the book then explore individual and group power respectively Each of these chapters explore a case study or case examples followed by Pause for Thought questions Bigger Go Further study questions are posed at the close of these chapters challenging students to engage in their own case study research to investigate the dynamics of crime and power Journal Council for Exceptional Children,1960

Women's Work Jennifer Moore,2025-03-11 When women have full socioeconomic citizenship as well as equitable and respectful partnerships with men transformative justice can be sustained in postconflict societies In Women s Work Jennifer Moore presents a reimaged theory of peacebuilding and transformative justice based on the experiences and insights of women farmers and microentrepreneurs who lived through protracted civil conflicts drawing on seven years of interviews with women activists across ten communities five in the Acholi region of Northern Uganda and five in the Moyamba and Koinadugu Districts of Sierra Leone Despite the important differences between the preconflict and conflict histories and demographics of the two countries Moore finds commonalities in the practical yet visionary approaches to community life emerging from the core values daily activities and long range goals shared by rural cooperative members in both regions Collective survival communal healing and conflict resolution define the rhythm of these women s daily lives as they go about building peace piecemeal They reject punitive retribution models and demand instead a peacebuilding model that advocates for advances in material well being the acknowledgment of state accountability for community suffering and reconciliation and restoration of community networks But most important Moore amplifies these women s voices when they insist that legal equality for women and healthy partnerships between women and men are also essential components to enduring transformation of their societies Moore theorizes what peacebuilding look like if it were modeled on these women led matriarchically structured communities that proved not only to be effective at holding governments accountable but also to have the capacity to feed their people and revitalize their local economies Women s Work shows that when women have full socioeconomic citizenship as well as equitable and respectful partnerships with men transformative justice can be sustained through the arts of collective livelihood violence free conflict management and celebration Handbook of Effective Literacy Instruction Barbara M. Taylor,Nell K. Duke,2014-07-21 The intent of this handbook is to provide a comprehensive forward looking research based resource for teachers teacher educators and researchers on the key inter connected components of effective literacy instruction The book is designed so that it is a readily useable resource for pre service and practicing teachers as well Every chapter in sections I II III and IV includes substantial suggestions for implementing research based practices in the classroom and for engaging in professional learning to help teachers increase their effectiveness as literacy instructors Every chapter in section IV also includes substantial suggestions for fostering
