Divided Passions Paul R. Mendes-Flohr,1991 Paul Mendes Flohr is emerging as the leading Jewish intellectual historian of the present generation In particular he is responsible for a significant amount of the important and pertinent scholarship in the field of German Jewish intellectual history. No one else is quite as intimately knowledgeable with this material. The ambiguous legacy of one of the most inventive and poignant episodes of creativity in the life of the Diaspora. Divided Passions is a collection of published and unpublished essays and articles by Paul Mendes Flohr from the past decade. In a manner that underscores their continued relevance and significance, Mendes Flohr writes about the problems that Buber, Rosenzweig, Bloch, Simon, Scholem, and others tried to crystallize and resolve. Mendes Flohr moves with effortless authority among the disciplines of theology, philosophy, literature, history, and sociology. Fitted with these interdisciplinary resources, he enriches his treatment of themes and figures in ways that exceed the scope to say nothing of the execution found in other literature. The book conveys a rare metaphysical depth for questions of faith, identity, and Dasein explored by the intellectual figures of the past; these are also personal ones for the author, as well. Mendes Flohr's exceptional ability to keep this body of work alive and available provides an outstanding source of commentary on the subjects that dominate the agenda of modern Jewish studies.
