Winnicott and 'Good Enough' Couple Therapy Claire Rabin,2014-04-03

Claire Rabin innovatively applies the Winnicottian theory of the good enough mother to couple therapy redirecting attention to the therapeutic relationship and the therapist's self awareness regardless of the methods used Using this lens even the therapist's mistakes become an opportunity for repairing both the therapeutic relationship and the partners own personal maturity The intensity and pressure of couple therapy can make each case a test of the therapist's competence The need for neutrality constitutes on going pressure on the therapist and the proliferation of therapeutic methods can cause confusion about which might be most useful in each situation Applying theory effectively is easier said than done within the context of the powerful emotions unleashed in sessions which can result in a catastrophic atmosphere These factors can make it hard for therapists to utilise their own skills and knowledge within sessions of couple therapy The book explores how therapists and couples can unintentionally further false selves without realising how the very tools of change may counter authenticity Featuring interviews with an international range of couple therapists and case studies from the author's own experiences the key aspects of the good enough concept are elaborated Rabin shows how these ideas can strengthen therapists sense of security and safety in using their lived experience and intuition Winnicott and Good Enough Couple Therapy is the ideal book for clinicians seeking an overarching framework for working with couples or families as well as those concerned with the importance of the client helper relationship

Holistic Happiness Robert P. Vande Kappelle,2022-06-23

As the founders of the US republic make clear in the Declaration of Independence human beings have an unassailable right to life liberty and the pursuit of happiness While the meaning of these unalienable rights is debated it is clear that these rights are interrelated Concerned with these rights Holistic Happiness focuses on happiness defining the purpose of life as achieving and maintaining happiness conducive to the equitable flourishing of all To this end happiness should not be confused with pleasure which is momentary and transitory for happiness is not so much a feeling as an attitude associated with what we call achieving meaning and purpose in life Properly understood happiness can be achieved but only by inner discipline requiring a transformation of one's outlook attitude and approach to life As this book emphasizes good health is an important foundation for happiness However to experience and maintain good health requires good genes a balanced lifestyle supportive companions wholesome eating and drinking regular exercise a positive mindset an active disposition and good fortune While happiness and good health are frequently disrupted by accidents disease stress chemical and emotional imbalance and numerous other factors wellness is achievable and sustainable but it needs balanced input from an individual's four constituent dimensions physical mental emotional and spiritual In this regard this volume is a resource for individuals seeking holistic happiness While benefitting from recent scholarly research Holistic Happiness is unique in content and conception and is useful for individual or group study Each chapter concludes with questions suitable for discussion or reflection The Oxford Handbook of the Russian Novel Julie A. Buckler, Justin Weir, 2025 The Oxford Handbook of the Russian Novel brings together top specialists in Russian literature to treat the Russian novel from the late 18th to the 21st century using a range of interpretive perspectives The Russian novel is a distinctive tradition by virtue of its formal eccentricities as well as the boldness with which these works approached the most complex philosophical political and moral questions This Handbook treats well known works and authors but also explores the much broader tradition of the Russian novel up to the present The essays in the Handbook provide cultural and historical perspectives on the Russian novel as well as showcasing emergent modes of analysis including postcolonialism ecocriticism and posthumanism Creating Literature Out of Life Doris Alexander, 2010-11 An exploration of the creative process in four classic works Death in Venice Treasure Island The Rubiy t of Mar Khayy m and War and Peace Creating Literature Out of Life examines four very dissimilar masterpieces and their authors in search of evidence that will answer some of the many questions in the great mystery of creativity Crossing boundaries of period nation and genre the study looks into the why and how of the creation of Thomas Mann's Death in Venice Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island Edward FitzGerald's The Rubiy t of Mar Khayy m and Lev Tolstoy's War and Peace Doris Alexander finds that each of these works was compelled by an urgent life problem of its author some of them partly conscious others completely unconscious which worked in harmony and counterpoint with the author's conscious theme to shape his work She traces an interconnected nexus of memories personal experiences ideas readings that came alive in response to the author's problem and served as a reservoir out of which his characters his images his story line and the emotional tone of his work emerged Creating Literature Out of Life tells the exciting story of how Mann Stevenson FitzGerald and Tolstoy fought out their major life battles in their works Early Years Education: Histories and traditions Rod Parker-Rees, Jenny Willan, 2006 This collection of papers provides a useful resource for scholars who need to ground their own study in a wider historical and global discourses concerning the education of children under eight

Anthropology off the Shelf Alisse Waterston, Maria D. Vesperi, 2011-01-04 In Anthropology off the Shelf leading anthropologists reflect on the craft of writing and the passions that fuel their desire to write books First of its kind volume in anthropology in which prominent anthropologists and 3 respected professionals outside the discipline follow the tradition of the writers on writing genre to reflect on all aspects of the writing process Contributors are high profile in anthropology and many have a strong presence outside the field in popular culture Unique in its format short essays revealing and straightforward in content and writing style The Royal Secret John Ransome Bentley, 2015-06-30 Saving Shakespeares Bacon A thrilling Tudor mystery of romance intrigue and immortality An expos of mystery and intrigue links the power politics of today directly to the seamy spy rings of Queen Elizabeth 1st Told through the eyes of Mrs G an American women of today she seeks to uncover the truth of the death of the man she loves The story reveals the tale of one of the world's best known men whose rightful claim to the thrones of England and America has been concealed until this day From Washington to London to Paris and the castles of the Templars Mrs G has only weeks in which to decrypt clues from the distant past of the Kaballah and the bloodline of Christ himself As she delves into a world of mysticism she exposes modern science to criticism in its suppression of a superior occult intelligence known only to those who have ruled the world down the Centuries as they still do today Writing Hard Stories Melanie Brooks, 2017-02-07 Some of the country's most admired authors including Andre Dubus III Mark Doty Marianne Leone Michael Patrick MacDonald Richard Blanco Abigail Thomas Kate Bornstein Jerald Walker and Kyoko Mori describe their treks through dark memories and breakthrough moments and attest to the healing power of putting words to experience What does it take to write an honest memoir And what happens to us when we embark on that journey Melanie Brooks sought guidance from the memoirists who most moved her to answer these questions Called an essential book for creative writers by Poets about violence and shunning and about the process of writing It will serve as a tool for teachers of writing and give readers an intimate look into the lives of the authors they love Authors profiled in Writing Hard Stories Andre Dubus III Sue William Silverman Michael Patrick MacDonald Joan Wickersham Kyoko Mori Richard Hoffman Suzanne Strempek Shea Abigail Thomas Monica Wood Mark Doty Edwidge Danticat Marianne Leone Jerald Walker Kate Bornstein Jessica Handler Richard Blanco Alysia Abbott and Kim Stafford Insights from Writing Hard Stories Why we endeavor collectively to write a book or paint a canvas or write a symphony is to understand who we are as human beings and it's that shared knowledge that somehow helps us to survive Richard Blanco Here's what you need to understand your brothers or family or friends are going to have their own stories to tell You don't have to tell the family story You have to tell your story of being in that family Andre Dubus III We all need a way to express or make something out of experiences that otherwise have no meaning If what you want is clarity and meaning you have to break the secrets over your knee and make something of those ingredients Abigail Thomas What we remember and how we remember it really tells us how we became who we became Michael Patrick MacDonald The reason I write memoir is to be able to see the experience itself I hardly know what I think until I write Writing is a way to organize your life give it a frame give it a structure so that you can really see what it was that happened Sue William Silverman After a while in the process you have some distance and you start thinking of it as a story not as your story It was a personal grief but no longer personal It's something that has not just happened to me and my family but something that's happened in the world Edwidge Danticat Tibetan Buddhists believe that eloquence is the telling of a truth in such a way that it eases suffering The more suffering that is eased by your telling of the truth the more eloquent you are That's all you can really hope for being eloquent in that fashion All you have to do is respond to your story honestly and that's the ideal Kate Bornstein You can never entirely redeem the experience You can't make it not hurt anymore But you can make it beautiful enough so that there's something to balance it in the other scale And if you understand that word beautiful as not necessarily pretty then you're getting close to recognizing the integrative power of restoring the balance which is restoring the truth Richard Hoffman The Handbook
