A Guided Reader to Early Years and Primary English Margaret Mallett, 2015-10-23 A Guided Reader to Early Years and Primary English draws on extracts from the published work of some of the most influential education writers to provide insight, guidance and clarity about key issues affecting early years practitioners and primary English teachers. The book brings together key extracts from classic and contemporary writing and contextualises these in both theoretical and practical terms. The extracts are accompanied by a summary of the key ideas and issues, raised questions to promote discussion and reflective practice and annotated further reading lists to extend thinking. Taking a thematic approach and including a short introduction to each theme, the chapters cover Models of and approaches to early years and primary English; Speaking and listening in English lessons; story telling; drama; booktalk and debate; Reading and responding to texts in English lessons; Writing in English lessons; finding a voice; Knowledge about language; grammar; spelling; punctuation and handwriting; The rich landscape of children's literature; Non-fiction in English lessons; Planning, assessing and recording children's progress; the learning cycle. Aimed at trainee and newly qualified teachers, those working towards Masters level qualifications and all those involved in the teaching of early years and primary English, this accessible but critically provocative text will be an essential resource for those that wish to deepen their understanding of early years and primary English education.

Creative Teaching in Primary Science Roger Cutting, Orla Kelly, 2014-10-20 Creative teaching has the potential to inspire deep learning using inventive activities and stimulating contexts that can capture the imagination of children. This book enables you to adopt a creative approach to the methods and content of your primary science teaching practice and confidently develop as a science educator. Key aspects of science teaching are discussed including planning for teaching and learning; assessing primary science; cross-curricular approaches; the intelligent application of technology; sustainability education; outdoor learning. Coverage is supported by illustrative examples encouraging you to look at your own teaching practice, your local community and environment, your own interests and those of your children to deepen your understanding of what constitutes good science teaching in primary schools. This is essential reading for students on primary initial teacher education courses on both university-based BEd BA with QTS PGCE and schools-based School Direct SCITT routes into teaching. Dr Roger Cutting is an Associate Professor in Education at the Institute of Education at Plymouth University. Orla Kelly is a Lecturer in Social, Environmental and Scientific Education in the Church of Ireland College of Education.
