The Legacy of Avery Cardinal Dulles, S.J. Anne-Marie Kirmse, Michael M. Canaris, 2011 Part I Cardinal Dulles's Legacy in His Words Part II Cardinal Dulles's Legacy in His Witness The Seductiveness of Virtue John J. Fitzgerald, 2016-12-15 John J. Fitzgerald addresses here one of life's enduring questions how to achieve personal fulfillment and more specifically whether we can do so through ethical conduct. He focuses on two significant twentieth century theologians Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel and Pope John Paul II seeing both as fitting dialogue partners given the former's influence on the Second Vatican Council's deliberations on the Jews and the latter's groundbreaking overtures to the Jews in the wake of his experiences in Poland before and during World War II. Fitzgerald demonstrates that Heschel and John Paul II both suggest that doing good generally leads us to growth in various components of personal fulfillment such as happiness, meaning in life and freedom from selfish desires. There are however some key differences between the two theologians. John Paul II emphasizes more strongly the relationship between acting well and attaining eternal life whereas Heschel wrestles more openly with the possibility that religious commitment ultimately involves anxiety and sadness. By examining historical and contemporary analyses including the work of the Fourteenth Dalai Lama, the philosopher Peter Singer and some present day psychologists, Fitzgerald builds a narrative that shows the promise and limits of Heschel's and John Paul II's views.

Pope John Paul II on the Body John M. McDermott, John Gavin, 2007 Avery Cardinal Dulles, SJ Patrick W. Carey, 2010 A biography of one of the foremost Catholic theologians of the post-Vatican II era focusing on his contributions to Catholic life and thought. Dust jacket.

Catechesis for the New Evangelization Brian Pedraza, 2020-06-12 Popes Francis, Benedict XVI and John Paul II have called the present a time of New Evangelization for the Church and have stressed the importance of catechesis for this mission. John Paul II claimed that this renewal of the Church's mission is grounded in the teachings of the Second Vatican Council. Nevertheless, approaches to catechesis in the conciliar and postconciliar era have varied greatly as evidenced by the shifts in catechetical practice effected by the modern catechetical movement. Just as the dominant forms of theology changed from neo-scholastic to anthropological approaches, so too did catechesis move from catechism-based approaches to more anthropological models based upon human experience. In light of this context, Catechesis for the New Evangelization examines the theological foundations of catechesis in the Church's understanding of divine revelation and its reception by the human person especially as found in the conciliar constitutions Dei Verbum and Gaudium et Spes. After drawing norms on divine revelation from these documents, it traces the history of the modern catechetical movement in order to compare this history with the conciliar norms, highlighting the renewal's strengths and weaknesses. These steps prepare the way for the main part of the book: an examination of the anthropology of Karol Wojtyła, a Pope John Paul II. Ultimately, his anthropology provides an understanding of the person that can unite divine revelation and human experience in a way that takes what is best from the modern catechetical movement while developing the ministry in a way that can be fruitful for the New Evangelization Pedraza's book is not only an incisive look at modern catechetical history and theory. It also touches upon some of the most important theological topics of the past century including the neo-scholastic crisis, the proper interpretation of the Council, the relationship of nature and grace and the modern understanding of the imago dei with the research and competency appropriate for scholarly interest and the accessibility needed for educated practitioners in catechesis. The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Christian Mysticism Julia A. Lamm, 2017-02-06 The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Christian Mysticism brings together a team of leading international scholars to explore the origins, evolution and contemporary debates relating to Christian mystics' texts and the movements they inspired. Provides a comprehensive and engaging account of Christian mysticism from its origins right up to the present day. Draws on the best of current scholarship by bringing together a collection of newly commissioned readings by leading scholars. Considers examples of mysticism in both Eastern and Western Christianity. Offers a brilliant synthesis of the key figures and historical periods of mysticism, its core themes such as heresy, gender or aesthetics and its theoretical considerations including theological, literary, social, scientific and philosophical approaches. Features chapters on current debates such as neuroscience and mystical experience and inter-religious dialogue.

The Human Person J. Brian, 2019-03-25 In the 20th Century three social revolutions: the industrial, sexual and technological revolutions challenged the religious convictions of many. John Paul II's teaching on the theology of the body was his response to the resulting societal shifts. Fr. Bransfield explores John Paul II's response to the challenges raised by these revolutions. In this context Bransfield then explores how Theology of the Body leads us to live the fullness of the Christian life.

Sacramental Presence after Heidegger Conor Sweeney, 2015-01-19 Theology after Heidegger must take into account history and language as constitutive elements in the pursuit of meaning. Quite often this prompts a hurried flight from metaphysics to an embrace of an absence at the center of Christian narrativity. In this book Conor Sweeney explores the postmodern critique of presence in the context of sacramental theology, engaging the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and Lieven Boeve. Chauvet is an influential postmodern theologian whose critique of the perceived onto-theological constitution of presence in traditional sacramental theology has made big waves, while Boeve is part of a more recent generation of theologians who even more wholeheartedly embrace postmodern consequences for theology. Sweeney considers the extent to which postmodernism à la Heidegger upsets the hermeneutics of sacramentality, asking whether this requires us to renounce the search for a presence that by definition transcends us. Against both the fetishization of presence and absence, Sweeney argues that metaphysics has a properly sacramental basis and that it is only through this reality that the dialectic of presence and absence can be transcended. The case is made for the full but restless signification of the mother's smile as the paradigm for genuine sacramental presence.
