Crimes Victims And Witnesses Apartheid In Palestine:

Crimes, Victims and Witnesses Mats Svensson, 2013-04-01 Breaking open a fascinating new dialogue on the situation in occupied Palestinian territories this personal account presents a South African perspective that is complemented by striking color photographs Author and photographer Mats Svensson began work in Jerusalem with Swedish development assistance and quickly realized that the world he had wandered into was far worse off than what he had read Through the lens of his camera and captured in his own words he documents the daily horrors that he witnessed during long treks through occupied territory This chronicle provides valuable depth to an issue that news articles abroad only scratch the surface of what it is truly like to live amidst the Israeli Palestinian conflict

Greater than the Sum of Our Parts Nada Elia, 2023-01-20 An inspiring and intersectional re imagining of the path to liberation in Palestine An inspiring call to action that deconstructs the many oppressive systems we currently find ourselves struggling against Adam Horowitz Mondoweiss How is the struggle for Palestinian freedom bound up in other freedom struggles and how are activists coming together globally to achieve justice and liberation for all In this bold book Palestinian activist Nada Elia unpacks Zionism from its hyper militarism to incarceration its environmental devastation and gendered violence She insists that Palestine s fate is linked through bonds of solidarity with other communities crossing racial and gender lines weaving an intersectional feminist understanding of Israeli apartheid throughout her analysis She also looks deeper into the interconnectedness of Palestine with Black migrant and queer movements and with other indigenous struggles against settler colonialism including that of Native Americans Greater than the Sum of Our Parts is a powerful and hopeful account highlighting the role of the Palestinian diaspora youth and women and inspired by activists across the world

Responses to 7 October: Law and Society Rosa Freedman, David Hirsh, 2024-05-29 One of three volumes responding to the 7 October attack Law and Society begins with a legal and a genocide studies critique of the claim that Israel is genocidal another reflects on the absence of an understanding of antisemitism in international legal discourse There are reflections on experiences in the Palestine solidarity movement and on the twists that discourse there takes Contributions draw on Judaism feminism and sociology to face what happened and to trace how Israelis were transported back to a quintessentially pre Israel Jewish experience Others survey reports of antisemitism around the globe in the wake of 7 October including pieces about Britain and Germany This work will appeal to scholars students and activists with an interest in antisemitism Jewish studies and the politics of Israel

Transitional Justice for Israel/Palestine Jeremie Bracka, 2022-01-01 This book applies the dynamic field of transitional justice to conflict resolution in Israel Palestine Around the globe diverse societies have pursued truth telling restorative justice and reconciliation to end conflict yet the language of transitional justice has been all but absent in Israel Palestine This volume squarely addresses how transitional justice could contribute to conflict transformation and accountability incorporating the questions of collective justice memory and human rights It covers the most important historical and legal issues facing Israel

Palestine with a focus on civil societies in South Africa Northern Ireland and Latin America Ultimately the book proposes an unofficial Israeli Palestinian Truth and Empathy Commission IPTEC to address gross human rights abuses committed by both nations Transitional Justice for Israel Palestine will be of interest to researchers NGOs and policy makers working in transitional justice and societies with ongoing conflict

Theologies of Liberation in Palestine-Israel Lisa Isherwood, Nur Masalha, 2014-08-28 Theologies of Liberation in Palestine Israel is a challenging collection of essays concerned with the development of contextualized theologies of liberation in Palestine and the indigenous Palestinian people's struggle for justice and liberation The innovation of the work stems from the inclusion of indigenous perspectives within its remit and the introduction of new concepts such as civil liberation theology The collection offers other ways to look at biblical discourses and their impact on the ongoing conflict ways to live peacefully ways to be ethical when visiting these conflicted lands understandings of resource ethics and even a new way to understand how we approach our understanding of liberation theology Contributors include well known scholars from Muslim Jewish Christian Palestinian Israeli Indian American and British backgrounds This work goes beyond typical academic collections vast in scope it will be informative not only to scholars and students but also to peace activists and policymakers It should be of use not only in academic courses but also for practitioners of conflict resolution peace and reconciliation

Think Palestine Jamil Effarah, 2013-09-13 Dr Effarah's weekly editorials and articles in this volume are based on developing events that took place involving the USA Administrations and their policies of support to Israel in the conflicts among Palestinians Arabs and Israelis This book is intended to those students teachers politicians executives policy makers and others who are interested or involved in the Middle East Dr Effarah interprets these events and policies as reflected by his six years 2007-2012 of writings that started since 1952 As an Arab American independent thinker he judges events according to their merits while acting as a participant observer to the one-sided American policy toward the Middle East He records and highlights the facts in an attempt to find the key to unlock the Palestinian Arab and Israeli conflicts His personal feelings and interpretations towards the proceedings represent a major part in presenting the events that took place in that period Dr Effarah attempts to create a voice for Arab Americans to stand up and be counted and act as an integral part of the American society He keeps pressing for more American Arab participation in the political process for more transparency and for faster and farther reaching to the Americans hearts and minds by trying to make them understand the Arabs situations and Arab Christian Patrimony culture and heritage Dr Effarah attempts to create an Arab American balanced policy to reach Americans and convince them that there are special interests groups and influential lobbyists in Washington D C who misinform media and try to spin around while beholding to the fabricated Israeli points of view To counterbalance the Zionist efforts Arab Americans should think Palestine and ask the American citizens to find answers for why the American citizens the taxpayers give money outright to Israel more than 8.5 million per day according to the CIA Factbook in 2012

Solidarity and the Palestinian Cause Zahi

Zalloua,2023-01-12 Zahi Zalloua provides the first examination of Palestinian identity from the perspective of Indigeneity and Critical Black Studies Examining the Palestinian question through the lens of settler colonialism and Indigeneity this timely book warns against the liberal approach to Palestinian Indigeneity which reinforces cultural domination and urgently argues for the universal nature of the Palestinian struggle Foregrounding Palestinian Indigeneity reframes the Palestinian Israeli conflict as a problem of wrongful dispossession a historical harm that continues to be inflicted on the population under the brutal Occupation of the West Bank and Gaza At the same time in a global context marked by liberal democratic ideology such an approach leads either to liberal tolerance the minority is permitted to exist so long as their culture can be contained within the majority order or racial separatism that is appeals for national independence typically embodied in the two state solution Solidarity and the Palestinian Cause not only insists that any analysis of Indigeneity s purchase must keep this problem of translation in mind but also that we must recast the Palestinian struggle as a universal one As demonstrated by the Palestinian support for such movements as Black Lives Matter and the reciprocal support Palestinians receive from BLM activists the Palestinian cause fosters a solidarity of the excluded This solidarity underscores the interlocking global struggles for emancipation from racial domination and economic exploitation Drawing on key Palestinian voices including Edward Said and Larissa Sansour as well as a wide range of influential philosophers such as Slavoj i ek Frantz Fanon and Achille Mbembe Zalloua brings together the Palestinian question Indigeneity and Critical Black Studies to develop a transformative anti racist vision of the world

American Intifada Uri Kaufman,2025-04-29 Why are progressives so hostile to Israel Listen to commentators and a pattern quickly emerges the more liberal the speaker the more likely they are to attack Israel Worse many liberals say things about Israel that are patently false After the October 7 Hamas attack Barack Obama said that Israel had unclean hands because of the unbearable occupation The trouble was there was no occupation Israel had withdrawn from Gaza almost twenty years before With his acclaimed wit historian Uri Kaufman answers the riddle by examining the phenomenon through the distorting lens of race Simply put Israelis are perceived as a white group of privilege while Palestinians are perceived as people of color For progressives fighting for people of color is the core value that crowds out all other considerations no matter the facts It all results in a strange upside down world where liberals attack Israelis who share their values while embracing Palestinians who reject them

One State Ghada Karmi,2023-04-20 An intelligent sensitive writer Financial Times Her bold vision of a single egalitarian state is the only way to break the current log jam Nur Masalha author of Palestine A Four Thousand Year History In 1948 Ghada Karmi and her family in Jerusalem were among the hundreds of thousands of Palestinians who were exiled during the creation of the state of Israel She has since become one of the most vocal proponents of the single democratic state in Palestine Israel In this book Karmi powerfully argues that a democratic one state settlement is the best possible route to a just future for all concerned including Palestinian refugees Uniting the land from the Mediterranean Sea to the River Jordan and allowing the Palestinian right of return is the only way to end the exclusive and antidemocratic character of the Israeli state Ghada Karmi was born in Jerusalem Forced from her home during the Nakba she later trained as a Doctor of Medicine at Bristol University She established the first British Palestinian medical charity in 1972 and was an Associate Fellow at the Royal Institute for International Affairs Her previous books include the best selling memoir In Search of Fatima How Meritocracy Rise
