Loane, 2012-08-02 Randy Reese and Robert Loane argue that the best leaders are a product of deep mentorship Thus tomorrow's good leader needs a good mentor today This book taps into the twin resources of leadership and spiritual formation to help you become the lifelong guide and friend our future leaders need Thinking Theologically about

Language Teaching Cheri L. Pierson, Will Bankston, 2017-08-31 Christians can often overlook the need to bring their daily vocations in accord with the reality created sustained and purposed through Christ This is no less true for language teachers who find themselves at a difficult interdisciplinary crossroads where the paths of linguistics culture and education merge This challenge should not discourage these educators but instead aid them in their journey to form a pedagogy rooted in theological truths from Scripture one that provides a nuanced approach that glorifies God in a manner specific to the language classroom The contributors of this book outline why and how theology must inform teaching methods so that Christian language educators might better serve their students with both faith and excellence thereby pointing them to the communicative God whose image they bear Welcome to College Jonathan Morrow, 2008 To help the upcoming student

Jonathan Morrow provides this engaging guide packed with advice on all manner of issues from dating and friends classes and homework to avoiding the temptation to just check out spiritually while in school Morrow gives personal advice and anecdotes draws examples from Scripture and offers additional resources for further insights from publisher description

Welcome to College 2nd ed Jonathan Morrow, 2017-03-28 The single best volume I have ever read for preparing students for how to follow Jesus and flourish as his disciple in college J P Moreland Is there a more frightening question for a graduating high school senior than What will you do with your life In college whether they realize it or not students will answer that question every day with each decision All of the new friends and new experiences of higher education will shape their future It's critical that students know how to handle college before they're in the thick of it Jonathan Morrow tackles the tough questions that arise during these formative years including How do you grow spiritually How do you manage your time to both study well and have fun Is all truth relative Are there good reasons to be a Christian As a Christian how should you view issues like dating and sex Each chapter of this new edition has been updated and the author has included a new chapter on Christianity homosexuality and the Bible Grounded in both his own extensive experience and biblical truth

Morrow's book is full of quick easy to read chapters and excellent advice Worth Doing W. David Buschart, Ryan Tafilowski, 2025-11-25 Reimagine Your Theology of Faith and Work Conversations about faith and work often miss an important truth limitations are not a problem they're a key part of what it means to be human Work has always been part of humanity's purpose but we're no longer in the perfect Garden of Eden nor are we in the future new heavens and new earth To truly address the challenges of work we need a new theological perspective In Worth Doing David Buschart and Ryan Tafilowski embrace the realities of limitations challenging the myths of You are what you do and Do what you love Instead they propose a theology of work that affirms the goodness of human limits while addressing the realities of fallenness offering hope for those who may not find deep fulfillment in their daily jobs Buschart and Tafilowski outline a new vision of work that resonates with all workers recognizing that every job has value even when it doesn't align with idealized notions of purpose or calling By embracing this perspective people can find new ways to approach daily labor even when it doesn't feel deeply fulfilling In Worth Doing readers will Gain a theology of work that moves beyond only ideas of productivity or calling Learn how to embrace human limitations as part of God's good design Reflect on the ways work connects to broader questions of purpose and human flourishing Worth Doing invites readers to consider their limitations as valuable aspects of their vocational journey offering a thoughtful framework for addressing the complexities of work This book is particularly relevant for theologians examining the intersections of work faith and rest Christian educators and leaders in the faith and work space By moving beyond conventional theological approaches to faith and work Worth Doing presents a hopeful and theologically rich perspective on vocation that acknowledges and embraces human limitations Free of Me Sharon Hodde Miller, 2017-10-03 We live in a culture that's all about self becoming the best me I can be instead of becoming like Jesus This me centered message affects every area of our lives our friendships our marriages even our faith and it breaks each one in different ways The self focused life robs our joy shrinks our souls and is the reason we never quite break free of insecurity In this book Sharon Hodde Miller invites us into a bigger Jesus centered vision one that restores our freedom and inspires us to live for more She helps readers identify the secret source of insecurity understand how self focus sabotages seven areas of our lives learn four practical steps for focusing on God and others experience freedom from the burden of self focus Anyone yearning for a purpose bigger than project me will cherish this paradigm shifting message of true fulfillment The Jesus Quotient Jennie A. Harrop, 2019-06-21 As leaders our capacity to hear is often muddled by an inability to acknowledge our own insufficiencies and emotions Jesus knew his God given purpose and emotional character so deeply that he was able to operate out of these foundations boldly and instinctively Jesus's infallible Intelligence Quotient IQ and Emotional Quotient EQ allowed him to focus on a third concept called Audience Quotient AQ an individual's ability to focus consistently completely and effectively on others As a church we are failing a twenty first century culture that is defined by an unprecedented interconnectedness and speed of information We are witnessing a scramble to manipulate and manage information that demands renewed integrity and yet the church is seen as hypocritical judgmental and irrelevant If we are going to earn a voice the future church cannot be about the components of church at all but instead the individual souls within the church pastors included The better we ground ourselves in the truth of who we were created to be IQ EQ and AQ the better able we will be to love God fully and love those around us as we love ourselves That after all is what Jesus commanded us to do
