Creative Spiritual Research Coenraad van Houten, 2011 How do adults learn and develop How can adult learning become a living growing process Cover Toward a Spiritual Research Paradigm Jing Lin, Rebecca L. Oxford, Tom E. Culham, 2016-07-01 Spirituality and spiritual experiences have been the bedrock of every civilization and together form one of the highest mechanisms for making sense of the world for billions of people Current research paradigms due to their limitation to empirical sensory psychologically or culturally constructed realities fail to provide a framework for exploring this essential area of human experience The development of a spiritual research paradigm will provide researchers from the social sciences and education the tools and abilities to systematically explore fundamental questions regarding human spiritual experiences and spiritual growth A spiritual research paradigm requires an ontology that considers all reality to be multidimensional interconnected and interdependent It requires an epistemology that integrates knowing from outer sources as well as inner contemplation acknowledging our integration of soul and spirit with the body and mind Three additional aspects are useful to a spiritual research paradigm axiology methodology and teleology An axiology concerns what is valued good and ethical A methodology is the appropriate approach to systematic inquiry A fifth and less frequently mentioned aspect is teleology an explanation of the goal or end telos to which new knowledge is applied such as gaining wisdom and truth touching the divine increasing inner peace exploring hidden dimensions or improving society This book takes the first step to develop such a research paradigm We draw from world spiritual traditions as well as scholarship that has arisen from contemplative practices We also attempt to build a bridge between science and spirituality Spiritual research is not necessarily opposed to scientific research in fact each can shed light on the other Results of Spiritual Research Rudolf Steiner, 2022-04-26 In a previously unavailable series of talks to the general public Rudolf Steiner builds systematically lecture by lecture on the fundamentals of spiritual science from the nature of spiritual knowledge and its relationship to conventional science the path of personal development and the task of metaphysical research to specific questions on the mystery of death the meaning of fairy tales the significance of morality and the roles of individual figures in human evolution such as Leonardo da Vinci Raphael and Jacob Boehme At the time of these presentations Steiner had already worked in Berlin for many years and thus could reckon with a regularly returning audience to whom what mattered was to enter ever more deeply into the areas of knowledge that were newly opening up to them Marie Steiner As a consequence and through a series of inter connecting lectures whose themes are entwined with one another he was able to communicate a coherent and challenging spiritual perception of reality based on his personal research Presented here with notes an index and an introduction by Simon Blaxland de Lange the 14 lectures include How is Spiritual Science Refuted On What Foundation is Spiritual Science Based The Tasks of Spiritual Research for both Present and Future Errors of Spiritual Research Results of Spiritual Research for Vital Questions and the Riddle of Death The World Conception of a Cultural Researcher of the Present

Aristotelians and Platonists Luigi Morelli, 2015-11-25 At the heart of this book is Rudolf Steiners culmination in the twentieth century or the convergence of the working of Aristotelians and Platonists for the renewal of culture And questions arise Where is the whole of the School of Michael at present How can we characterize and honor one and the other stream and avoid stereotypes and misunderstandings This work approaches the matter in its historical unfolding in three successive steps in which Steiner, Aristotle and Plato, Schröders incarnations form a thread. The first tableau opens up in the previous Age of Michael in Greece when Plato and Aristotle inaugurated the work of the two Michaelic streams. The second addresses the Middle Ages and centers around the contrast between Alain de Lille and Thomas Aquinas between the School of Chartres and Scholasticism. Steiner's and Schröders life tasks in the nineteenth century form the prelude to the present. The heart of the book and its longest section looks at the present. It contrasts the working of Aristotelians and Platonists in the natural sciences in psychology and in the social sciences. From the ground of extensive observation and characterization it then turns to pressing questions: What can Platonists learn from Aristotelians? And how about the reverse? Starting from the example of individuals meeting across the streams, how can we extend this understanding so that it becomes an ongoing practice and a cultural concern? How can Michaelic individuals and institutions work in ways that honor the whole of the Michaelic movement?

The Creative Power of Anthroposophical Christology Sergei O. Prokofieff, Peter Selg, 2011-10-18. Introductory essays written 1884-1897. CW 1. The holistic paradigm: Gaia, deep ecology and new alchemy all have a hidden ancestor: Johann Wolfgang von Goethe (1749-1832). At the youthful age of twenty-one, Steiner was chosen to edit Goethe's scientific writings for the principle Goethe edition of his time. Goethe's literary genius was universally acknowledged; it was Steiner's task to understand and comment on Goethe's scientific achievements. Steiner recognized the significance of Goethe's work with nature and his epistemology and here began Steiner's own training in epistemology and spiritual science. This collection of Steiner's introductions to Goethe's works re-vision the meaning of knowledge and how we attain it. Goethe had discovered how thinking could be applied to organic nature and that this experience requires not just rational concepts but a whole new way of perceiving. In an age when science and technology have been linked to great catastrophes, many are looking for new ways to interact with nature. With a fundamental declaration of the interpenetration of our consciousness and the world around us, Steiner shows how Goethe's approach points the way to a more compassionate and intimate involvement with nature. Nature's Open Secret is a translation of Goethe's Naturwissenschaftliche Schriften Einleitungen (1884-1897). Previous translations were titled Goethe the Scientist and Goethean Science. GA 1. The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies Bernadette Flanagan, Kerri Clough, 2024-09-03. The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies provides the first authoritative overview of methodology in this growing field. Against the background of the pandemic and other global challenges, spirituality is expanding as an agreed term with which to discuss the efforts people make to be fully present to deeper, invisible dimensions of their personal identity and external reality, but until now there have been few resources exploring the different methodological approaches researchers take. This book explores the primary methodologies emerging: First Person, Second Person and Third Person, and provides a systematisation of spirituality research in applied contexts for the first time. Comprising 33 chapters by a team of international contributors, the book is divided into seven parts: Foundations, Approaches to Contemplative Research,

Contemplative Research in Education Contemplative Research in Work and Leadership Contemplative Research in Science Health and Healing Contemplative Research in Social Sciences Contemplative Research and the Way Forward The Handbook provides readers practitioners and policymakers with methods and approaches which can facilitate a spiritual and contemplative stance in research activities It is an essential resource for researchers and students of Religion Spirituality and Research Methods
