War And Peace In The 20th Century And Beyond, The Nobel Centennial Symposium Geir Lundestad, Olav Njolstad, 2003-03-21 At the turn of the 21st Century the world was immediately gripped by the War on Terrorism followed by the Iraq War In reflection the 20th Century was a period marked by tremendous technological and economic progress but it was also the most violent century in human history It witnessed two horrendous world wars as well as the conflicts during the Cold War Why do wars persistently erupt among nations particularly the Great Powers What are the primary factors that drive nations to violence power prestige ideology or territory Or is it motivated by pure fear and mistrust Peering nervously at the 21st Century we wonder whether American supremacy and globalization will help ensure peace and stability Or will shifts in power with the emergence of new economic super nations lead to further tensions and conflicts in this century Together with 29 Peace Nobel laureates an outstanding group of
