Weaver, Harold George Koenig, Over 120 million American teens and adults use alcohol at one time or another While in most situations these individuals are able to use it responsibly and with moderation no one is immune to its destructive use which makes it a significant public health issue Many drinkers find that their otherwise responsible use turns problematic and abusive when faced with depression trauma grief undue social pressures or other tempting and potentially addictive behaviors Not all of these people become full fledged alcoholics but they do develop an alcohol problem that needs careful and sensitive pastoral care to understand the underlying issues for their alcohol abuse. Because of this, clergy and other pastoral counselors need to develop competence in recognizing alcohol abuse problems, including alcoholism, identifying when to make referrals, helping persons to find available community resources, and training congregational members to provide support to affected individuals and families.

Pastoral Care of Older Adults Harold George Koenig, Andrew J. Weaver, By the year 2000 more than 50 percent of mainline Protestants will be over the age of sixty. Older adults have special needs to which many pastors are not adequately prepared to minister. Harold Koenig and Andrew Weaver address this problem by providing practical guidance in dealing with such issues as Alzheimer's disease, the chronically ill, relocation, health crises, grief, depression, anxiety, gender differences, poverty, and the needs of children of older adults.

A Primer in Pastoral Care Jeanne Stevenson-Moessner, Based on her twenty years of teaching and on her own experience in pastoral care, Jeanne Stevenson Moessner has written a basic pastoral care text to assist in the emotional and spiritual preparation of pastoral caregivers. Stevenson Moessner expands on her key notion of pastoral care as seen through the interconnection and interplay of love of God, love of neighbor, and love of self. Her brief book is meant to engender confidence and caring in the initiate and to assuage the fear and anxiety that naturally occur when one accompanies people in life-changing pain and travail. Through skilled use of the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Good Shepherd, along with stories from her own experience, Stevenson Moessner imparts genuine wisdom and meaningful support to those who courageously dare to offer caregiving ministry in whatever situation or through whatever method or paradigm. Her work unfolds in six chapters: 1. Introduction: The One Room Schoolhouse; 2. Pointers and Precepts: The Grammar of Care; 3. The Prism of Pastoral Care: Scripture Refracted; 4. Paradigms in Pastoral Care: The Community as Classroom; 5. The Open Classroom: Places of Care; 6. Conclusion: An Alphabet of Grace.

Strategies for Brief Pastoral Counseling Howard W. Stone, Written by a new generation of recognized experts in pastoral care, these brief foundational books offer practical advice to pastors on the most frequent dilemmas of pastoral care and counseling.

Pastoral Care Emergencies David K. Switzer, 2000. David K. Switzer presents a clear, illustrative, and practical manual for pastoral caregivers that covers the entire range of pastoral care emergencies typically faced by clergy, pastoral counselors, and lay caregivers such as Stephen Ministers and Befrienders. The chapters deal with issues such as situational crises, hospital emergencies, ministry to the dying, bereavement, suicide, divorce, domestic violence, substance abuse, and psychiatric emergencies. The question of when and how to refer is discussed in the final chapter. The book is highly practical in approach but still extremely sensitive to the theological issues at hand in ministering to those experiencing great emotional, mental, and physical distress.
