Citizenship East and West Daniel Warner, Andre Liebich, Jasna Dragovic, 2012-10-12 First Published in 1995 The outcome of the political transition in Eastern Europe depends not only on the politics pursued but on the understanding of politics in the countries involved A key aspect of such understanding is the notion of citizenship an ancient term of striking contemporary relevance not only in Eastern Europe but in the West as well What then are the dynamics of citizenship in Europe s new democracies and how do emerging solutions to the question of citizenship there respond to the concerns that the issue of citizenship has raised and continues to raise elsewhere These questions prompted the project which has led to this volume Conceived in 1991 it focussed on Poland Hungary and what was then Czecho Slovakia as countries already grappling with the issue of post communist citizenship Introduction to the Law of Treaties Paul Reuter, 1995 First Published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Ideology and Economic Reform Under Deng Xiaoping 1978-1993 Wei-Wei Zhang, 2013-02-01 First published in 1996 Is ideology still relevant in post Mao China Deng Xiaoping s wide ranging economic reforms have led to declarations that ideology in China is merely a cynical sham or already dead but a closer look at China seems to suggest a constant conflict of different ideologies associated with the profound transformation of the Chinese society since 1978 This study is an attempt to explore the interactions between major ideological currents and economic reforms Modern Aspects Of The Laws Of Naval Warfare And Maritime

Neutrality George P. Politakis, 2018-10-24 First Published in 1991 This study covers developments up to the end of December 1996 of the legal parameters of modern naval warfare It also discussed the role of the power of the sea modern strategy Nationalism and Globalisation Daphne Halikiopoulou, Sofia Vasilopoulou, 2013-03-01 Nationalism and globalisation are two central phenomena of the modern world that have both shaped and been shaped by each other yet few connections have been made systematically between the two This book brings together leading international scholars to examine the effect of globalisation on nationalism and how the persistence of the nation affects globalisation With a range of case studies from Europe the US and Asia the authors focus on the interaction between globalisation national identity national sovereignty state formation and the economy Part one provides theoretical reflections on the flexibility and plasticity of the terms nationalism and globalisation focusing on the ways in which nationalism has shaped and has been shaped by globalising forces Part two examines the relationship between nationalism and globalisation in different historical eras and different regions questioning established approaches Part three focuses on contemporary issues including the economic crisis labour migration and citizenship and the theme of global culture The result is a highly topical account that considers the conceptual landscape of Nationalism and Globalisation With an interdisciplinary approach Nationalism and Globalisation will be of interest to students and scholars of political science sociology history economics and international relations
