The Soteriology of Leo the Great Bernard Green, 2008-04-10 Leo the Great was the beneficiary of the consolidation of the power of the papacy in Rome and the Christianization of the city over the course of the preceding century In this carefully nuanced study Bernard Green demonstrates the influences at work on this celebrated pope's development as a theological thinker including two of the most renowned theological names of the period Ambrose of Milan and Augustine of Hippo Green charts Leo's theological journey from his first encounters with the Pelagian and Nestorian controversies where he engaged Cassian as an advisor Leo took an admiring though limited view of Cyril of Alexandria but misunderstood the weaknesses in Nestorius thought As pope Leo preached a civic Christianity accessible to all citizens baptising the virtues of the classical and civic past The study then examines Leo s recently dated sermons and reveals the evolution of his thought as he worked out a soteriology that gave full value to both the divinity and humanity of Christ especially in reaction to Manichaeism In the crisis that led to Chalcedon Leo s earlier misunderstanding of Nestorius affected the content of his Tome which was atypical of the Christology and soteriology he had developed in his earlier preaching Green persuasively concludes that its emphasis on the distinction of the two natures was an uncharacteristic attempt to respond to both Eutyches and Nestorius as this pope understood them In the light of Chalcedon Leo produced a revised statement of Christology the Letter to the Palestinian monks which is both more accomplished and better aligned with his characteristic thought
