Livy's History Notes Kristin L. Fredrickson with Andrew G. Miller, 2021-06-29 An Invitation There is no place like Rome Founded in 753 BC according to legend by the city's first king Romulus it was the world's headquarters for over a thousand years during the Empire The city contains layers upon layers of archeological treasures A center of art and architecture culture and cuisine Rome is one of the most visited cities in the world I invite you on a three month journey inside Rome and beyond through the journal of your tour guide Kristin her husband and your driver Andrew and their six month old English springer spaniel Titus Livius Livy for short Yes you read that right they are traveling with a six month old puppy and that's not half as funny as the tales you will read along the way This isn't Kristin and Andrew's first rodeo In fact they have traveled together to over one hundred countries so you will be in their good capable hands Kristin was a Classical Humanities major at The Ohio State University and has carried a passion for history with her throughout their travels She continues to be an avid student of history as is evident in the bibliography that follows and she has a true gift for bringing history to life in an interesting and entertaining way In addition to travel and history Kristin and Andrew are avid foodies Throughout your journey you will read some mouthwatering descriptions of feasts you can almost taste Speaking of food your journey's icing on the cake is a trip through Greece Located at the geographic and historic crossroads of Europe Asia and Africa Greece is considered the cradle of Western civilization The territory was annexed by Rome from 146 BC thus becoming an integral part of Rome's vast empire This promises to be a wonderful journey with all the spectacular sights you will see the interesting history you will learn and the engaging culture you will experience Come join them for a fun funny and fantastic trip through Rome Greece and history We'll leave the driving to Andrew Tom Henz

Tracking the Literature of Tropical Weather Anne Collett, Russell McDougall, Sue Thomas, 2017-01-09 This book tracks across history and cultures the ways in which writers have imagined cyclones hurricanes and typhoons collectively understood as tropical weather Historically literature has drawn upon the natural world for its store of symbolic language and technical device making use of violent storms in the form of plot drama trope and image in order to highlight their relationship to the political social and psychological realms of human affairs Charting this relationship through writers such as Joseph Conrad Herman Melville Gis le Pineau and other writers from places like Australia Japan Mauritius the Caribbean and the Philippines this ground breaking collection of essays illuminates the specificities of the ways local national and regional communities have made sense and even relied upon the literary to endure the devastation caused by deadly tropical weather
