Cultivating Differences Symbolic Boundaries And The Making Of Inequality:

Cultivating Differences Michèle Lamont, Marcel Fournier, 1992-01-15 How are boundaries created between groups in society And what do these boundaries have to do with social inequality In this pioneering collection of original essays a group of leading scholars helps set the agenda for the sociology of culture by exploring the factors that push us to segregate and integrate and the institutional arrangements that shape classification systems Each examines the power of culture to shape our everyday lives as clearly as does economics and studies the dimensions along which boundaries are frequently drawn The essays cover four topic areas the institutionalization of cultural categories from morality to popular culture the exclusionary effects of high culture from musical tastes to the role of art museums the role of ethnicity and gender in shaping symbolic boundaries and the role of democracy in creating inclusion and exclusion The contributors are Jeffrey Alexander Nicola Beisel Randall Collins Diana Crane Paul DiMaggio Cynthia Fuchs Epstein Joseph Gusfield John R Hall David Halle Richard A Peterson Albert Simkus Alan Wolfe and Vera Zolberg The Blackwell Companion to the Sociology of Culture Mark D.

Musicians from a Different Shore Mari

Yoshihara,2008-05-02 Musicians of Asian descent enjoy unprecedented prominence in concert halls conservatories and classical music performance competitions In the first book on the subject Mari Yoshihara looks into the reasons for this phenomenon starting with her own experience of learning to play piano in Japan at the age of three Yoshihara shows how a confluence of culture politics and commerce after the war made classical music a staple in middle class households established Yamaha as the world s largest producer of pianos and gave the Suzuki method of music training an international clientele Soon talented musicians from Japan China and South Korea were flocking to the United States to study and establish careers and Asian American families were enrolling toddlers in music classes Against this historical backdrop Yoshihara interviews Asian and Asian American musicians such as Cho Liang Lin Margaret Leng Tan Kent Nagano who have taken various routes into classical music careers They offer their views about the connections of race and culture and discuss whether the music is really as universal as many claim it to be Their personal histories and Yoshihara s observations present a snapshot of today s dynamic and revived classical music scene
