Researching Subcultures, Myth and Memory Bart van der Steen, Thierry P.F. Verburgh, 2020-07-30 This book brings together contributions that analyse how subcultural myths develop and how they can be studied Through critical engagement with history writing and other sources on subcultures by contemporaries veterans popular media and researchers it aims to establish how stories and histories of subcultures emerge and become canonized through the process of mythification which developments and actors are crucial in this process and finally how researchers like historians sociologists and anthropologists should deal with these myths and myth making processes By considering these issues and questions in relation to mythmaking this book provides new insights on how to research the identity history and cultural memory of youth subcultures

Che's Afterlife Michael J. Casey, 2012-06-06 In 1960 Cuban photographer Alberto Korda captured fabled revolutionary Ernesto Che Guevara in what has become history's most reproduced photo Here Michael Casey tells the remarkable story of this image detailing its evolution from a casual snapshot to an omnipresent graphic plastered on everything from T-shirts to vodka to condoms and into a copyrighted brand As Casey follows it across the Americas and through cyberspace he finds governments exploiting it and their dissenters attacking it merchants selling it and tourists buying it We see how this image is ultimately a mercurial icon that still ignites passion and a reflection of how we view ourselves

The Art of the Sister Chapel Andrew Hottle, 2017-07-05 The Sister Chapel 1974-78 was an important collaborative installation that materialized at the height of the women's art movement Conceived as a nonhierarchical secular commemoration of female role models The Sister Chapel consisted of an eighteen foot abstract ceiling that hung above a circular arrangement of eleven monumental canvases each depicting the standing figure of a heroic woman The choice of subject was left entirely to the creator of each work As a result the paintings formed a visually cohesive group without compromising the individuality of the artists Contemporary and historical women deities and conceptual figures were portrayed by distinguished New York painters Alice Neel May Stevens and Sylvia Sleigh as well as their accomplished but less prominent colleagues Among the role models depicted were Artemisia Gentileschi Frida Kahlo Betty Friedan Joan of Arc and a female incarnation of God Although last exhibited in 1980 The Sister Chapel has lingered in the minds of art historians who continue to note its significance as an exemplar of feminist collaboration Based on previously unpublished archival materials and featuring dozens of rarely seen works of art this comprehensive study details the fascinating history of The Sister Chapel its constituent paintings and its ambitious creators

Political Tourism and its Texts Maureen Moynagh, 2008-11-08 The concept of political tourism is new to cultural and postcolonial studies Nonetheless it is a concept with major implications for scholarship Political Tourism and Its Texts looks at the writings of political tourists travellers who seek solidarity with international political struggles With reference to the travel writing of among others Nancy Cunard W.H. Auden and Christopher Isherwood Ernesto Che Guevara and Salman Rushdie Maureen Moynagh demonstrates the ways in which political tourism can be a means of exploring the formation of transnational affiliations and commitments Moynagh's aims are threefold First she looks at how these tourists create a sense of belonging to political struggles not their own and express their personal and political solidarity despite the complexity of such cross cultural relationships Second Moynagh analyses how these authors position their readers in relation to political movements inviting a sense of responsibility for the struggles for social justice Finally the author situates key twentieth century imperial struggles in relation to contemporary postcolonial and cultural studies theories of new cosmopolitanism Drawing on sociological postcolonial poststructuralist and feminist theories Political Tourism and Its Texts is at once an insightful study of modern writers and the causes that inspired them and a call to address with political urgency contemporary neo imperialism and the politics of global inequality

The Walls of Santiago Terri Gordon-Zolov, Eric Zolov, 2022-05-05 A photo illustrated record of Chilean protest art along with reflections on artistic antecedents global protest movements and the long shadow cast by Chile's authoritarian past From October 2019 until the COVID 19 lockdown in March 2020 Chile was convulsed by protests and political upheaval as what began as civil disobedience transformed into a vast resistance movement Throughout the most striking aspects of the protests were the murals graffiti and other political graphics that became ubiquitous in Chilean cities Authors Terri Gordon Zolov and Eric Zolov were in Santiago to witness and document the protests from their very beginning The book is beautifully illustrated with over 150 photographs taken throughout the protests Additional photos will be available on the publisher's website From the introduction In the conclusion we take stock of the crisis of the nation state in the contemporary era This chapter brings events into the present moment noting the ways President Piñera took advantage of the COVID 19 pandemic to reclaim the streets of Santiago a phenomenon echoed in countries across the globe While most of the global protest movements were forced to go underground or into the ether the Black Lives Matter movement surged in the United States and drew massive amounts of support both domestically and abroad suggesting a continued wave of grassroots protests We close with reflections on the continued relevance of walls in a virtual world the testimonial role that protest graphics play and the future outlook for revolutionary movements in Chile and worldwide
