Die Augenheilkunde der Alten Hugo Magnus, Eye Representation and Ocular Terminology from Antiquity to Helmholtz D. Raynaud, 2020-08-25 Anthropology of Color Robert E. MacLaury, Galina V. Paramei, Don Dedrick, 2007-11-21 The field of color categorization has always been intrinsically multi and inter disciplinary since its beginnings in the nineteenth century The main contribution of this book is to foster a new level of integration among different approaches to the anthropological study of color The editors have put great effort into bringing together research from anthropology linguistics psychology semiotics and a variety of other fields by promoting the exploration of the different but interacting and complementary ways in which these various perspectives model the domain of color experience By so doing they significantly promote the emergence of a coherent field of the anthropology of color As of February 2018 this e book is freely available thanks to the support of libraries working with Knowledge Unlatched Theories of Vision from Al-Kindi to Kepler David C. Lindberg, 1976 Kepler s successful solution to the problem of vision early in the seventeenth century was a theoretical triumph as significant as many of the more celebrated developments of the scientific revolution Yet the full import of Kepler s arguments can be grasped only when they are viewed against the background of ancient medieval and Renaissance visual theory David C Lindberg provides this background and in doing so he fills the gap in historical scholarship and constructs a model for tracing the development of scientific ideas David C Lindberg is professor and chairman of the department of the history of science at the University of Wisconsin Madison Schmidt's Jahrbuecher, 1876
