Diary of a Mad Poet - Urban Poet, 2013-05 I have seen both sides of America the ghetto and Wall Street Unfortunately the past decade has not shown America in a good light I would like to apologize to the world also to the American middle class poor disabled and senior citizens for enduring an America that has been un American My writings reflect the bad and good in America and I hope it inspires America to do better My style of writing is not poetry but rather hip hop on paper For example I don't know what to do I can't tell angels from demons Demons from angels Don't know if these women wanna be loved or strangled Don't know if they wear chains or bangles Don't know if they're strippin or tango All these dudes flossin They say they got paper but when they walk they jangle Don't know if these politicians for real or got an angle Don't know if these preachers married to the church or sangle America she doesn't know the Lord's Prayer But she knows the Pledge of Allegiance and Star Spangle I would like to apologize in advance if some of my writings seem harsh and offensive However my writings reflect the external world as I experienced it My experiences have influenced and shaped my internal world the way I think and feel I pray that you have had many more positive experiences than I Welcome to my world the world of URBAN Poet I am in love with a country that sometimes doesn't love me I am disappointed in America and angry at government politicians religion and citizens who have chosen greed and selfishness over humanity Furthermore I am disappointed in the world and all the evil injustice prejudice poverty and corruption Today we live in the new age of Sodom and Gomorrah An environment where money is god sex is casual and love conditional These are the things that motivated and inspired me to write this book Writing as the URBAN Poet this is my first book My next two books will be titled Diary of a Mad Poet Volume 2 and From the Ghetto to Wall Street My parents lived in a very poor community in Grenada Mississippi In search of better living conditions they moved to Chicago I was born in Maplewood Projects on the West Side of Chicago I had a physically abusive father I ran away from home at the age of fifteen but still attended high school for food and shelter After high school my life went on a downward spiral for many years When I fell to the bottom I wondered Why was I poor and the rich man rich I came to the conclusion that it had to be more than race it had to be education Shortly afterward I enrolled in college and started receiving an abundance of loans scholarships and grants After tuition and rent were paid I invested in the stock market I continued on this course for seven years and received a bachelor of science in accounting and a master's in finance while managing to develop a large investment portfolio I've been working on Wall Street since I graduated Currently I live in Atlanta my income is well into the six figure range and I have traveled around the world Publisher's website <http://sbpra.com> URBANPoet new way of thinking about Puerto Rican politics Guided by a dynamic and suggestive concept of political power the author navigates his way deftly through the thickets of volatile debates and controversy in tracking a century long history of radical class and ethnic speaking truth to power in the Latino vein Taking us back to the cigar worker strikes before the 1920s the story of Boricua Power goes on to probe the political scene in the post World War II era and then sheds new light on the Young Lords Party and the exciting political watershed of the Sixties and Seventies in New York City To sidestep the pitfalls of blame the victim pathologizing on the one hand and wishful triumphalism on the other Snchez's metaphor of the play of power as dance is fun convincing and thoroughly apropos Juan Flores author of From Bomba to Hip Hop Puerto Rican Culture and Latino Identity A well written historically informed and original treatment of the Puerto Rican cultural and ethnic class struggle in America Boricua Power is scholarly yet heartfelt and recommended to anyone interested in ethnicity and social power Michael Parenti author of The Culture Struggle Where does power come from Why does it sometimes disappear How do groups like the Puerto Rican community become impoverished lose social influence and become marginal to the rest of society How do they turn things around increase their wealth and become better able to successfully influence and defend themselves Boricua Power explains the creation and loss of power as a product of human efforts to enter keep or end relationships with others in an attempt to satisfy passions and interests using a theoretical and historical case study of one community Puerto Ricans in the United States

Sociologists in Action Kathleen Odell Korgen, Jonathan M. White, Shelley K. White, 2013-03-14 The only text to provide real life examples of how practicing sociologists use sociology to work toward social change and social justice Providing vivid examples of how sociologists are using sociological tools to make a positive impact on our society this one of a kind book helps students better understand how their study of sociology can be put to good use in today's world Each of the 14 chapters closely aligned with key topics in sociology courses is filled with stories from practicing sociologists that help students better understand how their sociology studies can be applied and provides answers to the question but what can I do with a sociology degree Discussion questions and suggested additional readings and resources at the end of each chapter give students the opportunity to delve further into the topics covered and carry out full and nuanced discussions grounded in the real world work of public sociologists Contributor to the SAGE Teaching Innovations and Professional Development Award

Diary of a Dirty Boy Luis Miguel Fuentes, 1998 Encuentro Trevor Boffone, Teresa Marrero, Chantal Rodriguez, 2019-05-15 This anthology has its origins in the Encuentro theater festival which was produced by the Latino Theater Company in association with the Latinx Theatre Commons in Los Angeles in 2014 Encuentro means an encounter and meetings form a core theme in these six groundbreaking plays each prefaced by a critical introduction from a leading Latinx theater scholar Playwrights Ruben C Gonzalez Jos Torres Tama Rickerby Hinds Mariana Carre o King Javier Antonio Gonzalez and Evelina Fernandez exhibit a wide range of aesthetic approaches dramatic structures and themes ranging from marriage gentrification racial and gendered violence migration and the ever present politics of the U S Mexico border There is power in the communal experience of creating witnessing and participating in theater festivals This anthology is a testament to that power and seeks to document the historic festival as well as to make these works available to a wider audience Encuentro Latinx Performance for the New American Theater addresses interests of general audiences committed to the performing arts scholars and students of Latinx gender and ethnic studies university college and high school theater programs and regional theaters looking to diversify their programming Cabbagetown Diary Juan Butler, Tamas Dobozy, 2013-09-03 Robert Fulford called it a remarkable glimpse of the underbelly of Toronto but the reviews that greeted the publication of Cabbagetown Diary in 1970 were decidedly mixed The novel's rowdy concoction of grit and violence and rooming house sleaze had a strongly polarizing effect on its readers Many admired the frankness of Butler's depiction of a sordid environment and others deplored the obscenity of the language and the dangerous and careless ways in which his characters behave bent as they are on downward self transcendence But Cabbagetown Diary was undeniably a promising debut by a young writer whose brash tone and pungent subject matter were unique in Canadian writing at that time The novel takes the form of a diary written by a disaffected young Toronto bartender Michael over the course of his four month liaison with Terry a naive teenager who is new to the city Michael introduces her to his friends and his inner city haunts to drink and drugs and to the nihilist politics espoused by some in his circle With hard bitten cynicism and flashes of dark humour Michael relates the vicissitudes of their summer together This reissue of Cabbagetown Diary includes a biographical sketch by Charles Butler and an afterword by Tamas Dobozy Diary of a Nappy Head Theresa Anne, 2010-03-18 To those around Jergen Black beauty equaled having straight hair it was an equation that she never quite understood All her young life Jergen watched her now thin haired mother Mamma Dee constantly smoke up the kitchen with a hot comb while straightening people's hair and bragging about how beautiful they were going to look when she finished Jergen's choice to wear her hair natural is constantly critiqued by those around her as well as by her ghetto grandmother who dates Stockton the town drug lord who is half her age Not only does Jergen have to worry about her mother becoming bald from burning out her own hair she also has to worry about her grandmother's dangerous lifestyle getting the best of her Jotting down the events of the day in the new diary that her ex boyfriend's mother gave her provides Jergen with an outlet for her to express her thoughts freely Jergen is able to make it through with the help of her three best friends who call themselves La Natural four very smart black beauties who happily wear their hair natural and show it off despite the reaction they receive from the outside world Caribbean Migrations Anke Birkenmaier, 2020-12-18 2021 Choice Outstanding Academic Title With mass migration changing the configuration of societies worldwide we can look to the Caribbean to reflect on the long standing entangled relations between countries and areas as uneven in size and influence as the United States Cuba Hispaniola Puerto Rico and Jamaica More so than other world regions the Caribbean has been characterized as an always already colonial region It has long been a key area for empires warring over influence spheres in the new world and where migration waves from Africa Europe and Asia accompanied every political transformation over the last five centuries In Caribbean Migrations an interdisciplinary group of humanities and social science scholars study migration from a long term perspective analyzing the Caribbean s unincorporated subjects from a legal historical and cultural standpoint and exploring how despite often fractured public spheres Caribbean intellectuals artists filmmakers and writers have been resourceful at showcasing migration as the hallmark of our modern age
