in a certain order so I've divided the book into three sections. In Part I, Creating Intimacy, you'll learn how to give your partner what they most want from you. When you know how to give your partner exactly what they want, intimacy deepens and a lot of problems simply disappear all by themselves. 3 The three As are essential to have a great relationship: acknowledgment, appreciation, and acceptance. They are like high octane gasoline that makes the human personality run. They are the essential ingredients that convey love from one person to another. 4 When it comes to listening, the more you validate your partner's experience, the more they will be willing to listen to you.
