The Slain God Timothy Larsen, 2014 This book is a history of the relationship between the discipline of anthropology and the Christian faith It explores how leading anthropologists have come to believe that ethnographic findings and evidence made Christianity no longer tenable

Democracy at the Ballpark Thomas David Bunting, 2021-11-01 What is the relationship between sports and politics Often politics are thought to be serious whereas sports are diversionary and apolitical Using baseball as a case study Democracy at the Ballpark challenges this understanding examining politics as they emerge at the ballpark around spectatorship community equality virtue and technology Thomas David Bunting argues that because spectators invest time and meaning in baseball the game has power as a metaphor for understanding and shaping politics The stories people see in baseball mirror how they see the country politics and themselves As a result democracy resides not only in exclusive halls tread by elites but also in a stadium full of average people together under an open sky Democracy at the Ballpark bridges political theory and sport providing a new way of thinking about baseball It also demonstrates the democratic potential of spectatorship and rethinks the role of everyday institutions like sport in shaping our political lives offering an expanded view of democracy

Learning to Love Sonya E Pritzker, 2024-07-10 Learning to Love offers a range of perspectives on the embodied relational affective and sociopolitical project of learning to love at the New Life Center for Holistic Growth a popular mind body spirit bookstore and practice space in northeast China in the early part of the 21st century This intimate form of self care exists alongside the fast moving growing capitalist society of contemporary China and has emerged as an understandable response to the pressures of Chinese industrialized life in the early 21st century Opening with an investigation of the complex ways newcomers to the center suffered a sense of being off both in and with the world at multiple scales Learning to Love then examines how new horizons of possibility are opened as people interact with one another as well as with a range of aesthetic objects at New Life Author Sonya Pritzker draws upon the core concepts of scalar intimacy a participatory discursive process in which people position themselves in relation to others as well as dominant ideologies concepts and ideals and scalar inquiry the process through which speakers interrogate these forms their relationship with them and their participation in reproducing them In demonstrating the collaborative interrogation of culture history and memory she examines how these exercises in physical mental and spiritual self care allow participants to grapple with past social harms and forms of injustice how historical systems of power including both patriarchal and governance structures continue in the present and how they might be transformed in the future By examining the interactions and relational experiences from New Life Learning to Love offers a range of novel theoretical interventions into political subjectivity temporality and intergenerational trauma healing When the Universe Cracks Angie Ward,2021-10 Global conflicts civil unrest fallen leaders health crises financial meltdowns the world is ripe with strife When we face unexpected personal crises or when society around us seems to be collapsing we wonder Why is this happening Can God be trusted Who can I trust to help me follow Jesus through this current crisis When the Universe Cracks is a sweeping multifaceted look at the role of crisis in the life of faith from an esteemed gathering of pastors faith leaders and experts You ll find honest and realistic reflections to help you navigate a present trouble or anticipate changes Inspired by a global pandemic these writers examine the whole history of God s people and offer a fresh perspective for every time the universe cracks Scholar and church leader Angie Ward facilitates this energizing and fascinating discussion Thought leaders Jo Anne Lyon Efrem Smith Christine Jeske D A Horton Kyuboem Lee Marshall Shelley Matt Mikalatos Sean Gladding Catherine McNiel and Lee Eclov each contributed a chapter When the Universe Cracks is the first in a series of Kingdom Conversations books that bring together experts and faith leaders to address the most urgent and perplexing challenges of our time in resonant and redemptive ways for each of us and all of us Worlding Home MarenLarsen,2025-10-28 Worlding Home interrogates the social spatial and architectural lifeworlds of United Nations UN peacekeepers accommodated in contingent camps throughout Goma the capital of North Kivu in the Democratic Republic of the Congo From 2017 to 2019 more than twenty of these camps existed in and around the city operating as sites of global outreach even as they generated new ways of being at home for peacekeepers and the peace kept population Through multisited ethnography and deep engagement with anthropological and urban theory author Maren Larsen explores the entanglements of camp and city Pushing against readings of Goma s peacekeeping camps as either more privileged enclaves or as outliers in camp studies when compared to refugee camps Larsen argues for an understanding of camp as a process and practice Between dwelling and journeying and here and there the everyday lives and embodied practices of Goma s peacekeepers and Congolese civilians co construct a city as elsewhere in which camping is a vital urban practice By offering a more expansive understanding of how UN peacekeeping camps fit within Goma s urban fabric Worlding Home reveals the intertwined sociospatial processes of making a home building a city and reimagining the world Manifesting the Spirit Mbanyane Mhango,2021-09-30 Fewer subjects have generated intense debate in Christian thought and practice than sacraments A reductionist view of the term sacrament often causes this debate and engenders tension between the so called sacramental and non sacramental churches largely based on whether one views the Water Baptism and the Lord s Supper as ordinances or as sacraments means of encountering God Drawing from the theological view that Christ is the primordial sacrament of the encounter with God this book posits that all believers are sacraments of an encounter with God This claim has ecumenical import Conversion Baptism the Lord s Supper the Empowerment Gifts and Fruit of the Spirit Worship Testimonies of Triumphs or Sufferings Eschatological Hope etc enable believers to manifest the Spirit Pentecost inaugurated all believers as both macrocosmic and microcosmic sacrament s The notion of sacramentality of believers intersects with the theological triad of Orthodoxy Orthopraxy and Orthopathy

Growing Young Leaders Donald Smith, 2025-02-14 This book fills in gaps in research on leadership development programs for youth through taking the opportunity to research a long standing leadership development program for young men that has evidenced some success The research question was What factors contribute to the apparent success of the Boys Brigade leadership program Using a grounded theory methodology the program was examined through the lenses of communitas liminality servant leadership masculine spirituality rites of passage and wilderness Research findings are that program is characterized by its uniqueness and the final theory that emerged identified the importance for youth ministry of acceptance imperfection and freedom and empowerment within an overarching spiritual dimension evidenced throughout the study most remarkably through the positive response to worship Staff factors were also critical including the description of the staff team as being multi generational non hierarchical and servant led not placing a high value on differentiation of status and allowing a seamless transition of course graduates into staff roles

The Open System Landon Mascareñaz, Doannie Tran, 2023-06-20 A call to action for school and community leaders to reframe educational institutions as open systems that are adaptable and responsive to the needs of students families and communities Landon Mascare az and Doannie Tran propose that even as events of this decade have exposed stress points in existing top down closed systems within education and other public institutions they have also created prime opportunities to rethink and redesign those systems in ways that encourage civic participation and invigorate local democracy In The Open System Mascare az and Tran argue for a critical revitalization of public education centered in openness an organization design concept in which an entity receives considers and acts on input from the community it serves As they demonstrate open education policy improves information flow increasing opportunity bolstering public trust and making room for cocreation and coproduction driven by community partnerships and family engagement Based on their groundbreaking work with educational coalitions such as the Kentucky Coalition for Advancing Education and Colorado s Homegrown Talent Initiative Mascare az and Tran introduce six key liberatory moves that can bring about open system transformation They highlight real life examples of the types of incremental specific and discrete projects that leaders can use to create openness in educational systems at the school district and state levels providing a blueprint for changemaking
