Communities Of Resistance Writings On Black Struggles For Socialism Library:

Communities of Resistance Ambalavaner Sivanandan, 2019-10-08 Ambalavaner Sivanandan was one of Britain's most influential radical thinkers. As Director of the Institute of Race Relations for forty years, his work changed the way that we think about race, racism, globalisation and resistance. Communities of Resistance collects together some of his most famous essays, including his excoriating polemic on Thatcherism and the left, The Hokum of New Times. This updated edition contains a new preface by Gary Younge and an introduction by Arun Kundnani. Incarcerating the Crisis Jordan T.

Camp, 2016-04-18 The United States currently has the largest prison population on the planet. Over the last four decades, structural unemployment, concentrated urban poverty and mass homelessness have also become permanent features of the political economy. These developments are without historical precedent but not without historical explanation. In this searing critique, Jordan T. Camp traces the rise of the neoliberal carceral state through a series of turning points in U.S. history, including the Watts insurrection in 1965, the Detroit rebellion in 1967, the Attica uprising in 1971, the Los Angeles revolt in 1992, and events in post-Katrina New Orleans in 2005. Incarcerating the Crisis argues that these dramatic events coincided with the emergence of neoliberal capitalism and the state's attempts to crush radical social movements. Through an examination of the poetic visions of social movements, including those by James Baldwin, Marvin Gaye, June Jordan, José Martí, and Sunni Patterson, it also suggests that alternative outcomes have been and continue to be possible.

Reclaiming Identity Paula M. L. Moya, Michael R. Hames-García, 2000-12-14 Identity is one of the most hotly debated topics in literary theory and cultural studies. This bold and groundbreaking collection of ten essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences for how people experience the world. Advocating a postpositivist realist approach to identity, the essays examine the ways in which theory, politics, and activism clash with or complement each other, providing an alternative to the widely influential postmodernist understandings of identity. Although theoretical in orientation, this dynamic collection deals with specific social groups: Chicanas/os, African Americans, gay men and lesbians, Asian Americans, and others, and concrete social issues directly related to race, ethnicity, sexuality, epistemology, and political resistance. Satya Mohanty's brilliant exegesis of Toni Morrison's Beloved serves as a launching pad for the collection. The essays that follow, written by prominent and up-and-coming scholars, address a range of topics from the writings of Cherrie Moraga, Franz Fanon, Joy Kogawa, and Michael Nava to the controversy surrounding racial program housing on college campuses and work toward a truly interdisciplinary approach to identity. Disrupting Hierarchy in Education Antonia Darder, 2024 This book features rich examples of real-world social change projects. At the book's core is Paulo Freire's theorization of students and teachers working together toward co-liberation. Projects span academic disciplines and geographical locations from K-12, university, college, and non-formal educational contexts. Chapters include discussion questions and suggested activities.

The Political Economy of Communication Vincent Mosco, 2009-05-07 The Political Economy of Communication provides a thorough coverage of an important area of communication studies the political economy approach to media This highly successful text has been thoroughly updated restructured and rewritten in this new edition clearly demonstrating how power operates across all media from newspapers to Facebook and how media power intersects with globalization social class race gender and surveillance Teaching Yourself Social Theory David

Harris,2002-12-13 Social theory is a very difficult subject to teach and it is one that students generally find hard to get to grips with Teaching Yourself Social Theory offers a highly original and comprehensive resource that will be welcomed by students and teachers alike Barry Smart University of Portsmouth I have no hesitation in recommending Harris text to students and teachers of social theory Sociology This refreshing and accessible text demonstrates how social theory can be made into an intelligible discourse that touches upon key aspects of everyday life The abstraction and formalism of much contemporary social theory is criticized as unnecessarily scholastic for the beginner The author maintains that the main problems in studying the subject are not intrinsic to social theory but derive from how the subject is taught as a university discipline This lively book uses non specialist terms to introduce more complex themes and incorporates a Website with questions and reading guides to some of the classic works Confronting Injustice without Compromising Truth

Study Guide Thaddeus J. Williams,2022-06-28 Enacting social justice is essential to the Christian faith But the Bible s call to seek justice is not a call to superficial activism True justice requires biblical wisdom and communal discernment Maybe you re frustrated with a version of Christianity that doesn t seem to take justice seriously Perhaps you ve witnessed the rise of ideologies that brand themselves as social justice but you have a sense that something is off about them Maybe you have a hunch that God offers a better way to do justice than what s offered by the snarky memes on our news feeds In this 14 session video based study guide teacher and lecturer Thaddeus Williams furthers the case he made in his book taking study groups and individuals deeper into complex question of how to pursue a path of justice without compromising the truth of the gospel Participants will watch video segments DVD streaming video sold separately hear from a diverse range of experts interact in group discussions and answer personal reflection questions to discover what the Bible and the example of Jesus have to teach us about justice Williams confronts religious and political tribalism and challenges participants to discover a compelling vision of justice for all God s image bearers that offers hopeful answers to life s biggest questions and a way forward Sessions Include What is Social Justice The God Question The Imago Question The Idolatry Question The Collective Question The Splintering Question The Fruit Question The Disparity Question The Color Question The Gospel Question The Tunnel Vision Question The Suffering Question The Standpoint Question Conclusion Revolutionary Feminisms Rafeef Ziadah,Brenna Bhandar,2020-08-18 In a moment of rising authoritarianism climate crisis and ever more exploitative forms of neoliberal capitalism there is a compelling and urgent need for radical paradigms of thought and action Through interviews with key revolutionary scholars Bhandar and Ziadah present a thorough discussion of how anti racist anti capitalist feminisms are crucial to building effective political coalitions Collectively these interviews with leading scholars including Angela Y Davis Silvia Federici and many others trace the ways in which black indigenous post colonial and Marxian feminisms have created new ways of seeing new theoretical frameworks for analysing political problems and new ways of relating to one another Focusing on migration neo imperial militarism the state the prison industrial complex social reproduction and many other pressing themes the range of feminisms traversed in this volume show how freedom requires revolutionary transformation in the organisation of the economy social relations political structures and our psychic and symbolic worlds The interviews include Avtar Brah Gail Lewis and Vron Ware on Diaspora Migration and Empire Himani Bannerji Gary Kinsman Leanne Betasamosake Simpson and Silvia Federici on Colonialism Capitalism and Resistance Ruth Wilson Gilmore Avery F Gordon and Angela Y Davis on Abolition Feminism

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Citizen Media Mona Baker,Bolette B. Blaagaard, Henry Jones, Luis Pérez-González, 2020-10-21 This is the first authoritative reference work to map the multifaceted and vibrant site of citizen media research and practice incorporating insights from across a wide range of scholarly areas Citizen media is a fast evolving terrain that cuts across a variety of disciplines It explores the physical artefacts digital content performative interventions practices and discursive expressions of affective sociality that ordinary citizens produce as they participate in public life to effect aesthetic or socio political change The seventy seven entries featured in this pioneering resource provide a rigorous overview of extant scholarship deliver a robust critique of key research themes and anticipate new directions for research on a variety of topics Cross references and recommended reading suggestions are included at the end of each entry to allow scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds to identify relevant connections across diverse areas of citizen media scholarship and explore further avenues of research Featuring contributions by leading scholars and supported by an international panel of consultant editors the Encyclopedia is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as researchers in media studies social movement studies performance studies political science and a variety of other disciplines across the humanities and social sciences It will also be of interest to non academics involved in activist movements and those working to effect change in various areas of social life

Disabling Migration Controls Rebecca Yeo, 2024-06-10 When people are prevented from meeting their needs the impact is disabling whether in the immigration system or in the wider population Drawing on many years of research and activism this book argues that insights from the disabled people s movement particularly the original Social Model of Disability can be usefully extended to focus resistance on the disabling restrictions imposed on people subject to asylum and immigration controls While acknowledging the pain and discomfort of many impairments and of forced displacement the book focuses on injustices that can be changed It does not catalogue the hostility of the hostile environment Nor does it promote inclusive asylum restrictions An unjust system is not transformed by including disabled people Policies designed to deprive people of essential needs and to stoke hatred among the wider population are core elements of the rise of fascism In this context bringing together movements for disability and migrant justice could help build urgently needed solidarity and resistance with which to develop a society based on equity and common humanity Quotations and images are used to convey the messages and priorities of disabled people seeking asylum ensuring that the book is both engaging and grounded in the insights of lived experience This book will interest people seeking to improve social justice including scholars of disability migration sociology and politics
